EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (PAGES 1-2 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

Paragraphs 1, 8, and 10 on pages 1-2 of the 2025 HPE/FSP are removed. Content replacing paragraphs 1 and 8 is included below. The remaining content on pages 1-2 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is unchanged.

Replacing paragraph 1: This 2026 Amended Fourth Round Housing Plan Element and Fair Share Plan (HPE/FSP) has been prepared for the Township of Montgomery ("Township" or "Montgomery"), Somerset County in accordance with the New Jersey Fair Housing Act ("FHA") at N.J.S.A. 52:27D-310 as amended by P.L. 2024 c.2, the Administrative Directive #14-24, and the rules of the New Jersey Council on Affordable Housing (COAH) contained at N.J.A.C. 5:93 et seq. This plan is an amendment to the 2025 Fourth Round HPE/FSP adopted by the Planning Board on June 26, 2025, and endorsed by the Township Committee on July 3, 2025. This 2026 Amended Fourth Round HPE/FSP will serve as the foundation for the Township's additional submission to the Superior Court of New Jersey and the Affordable Housing Dispute Resolution Program (Program).

Replacing paragraph 8: The Fourth Round Prospective obligation (2025-2035) of 260 units will be addressed with extension of expiring controls and Fourth Round bonuses.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING JUDICIAL & LEGISLATIVE BACKGROUND (PAGES 3-7 OF 2025 HPE/FSP, UNCHANGED)

The content on pages 3-7 of the 2025 HPE/FSP under this section is unchanged.

MONTGOMERY'S AFFORDABLE HOUSING HISTORY (PAGES 8-10 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

Paragraphs 1-12 on pages 8-10 of the 2025 HPE/FSP are unchanged. Paragraph 13 on page 10 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced with the paragraphs included below.

On January 27, 2025, the Township adopted a resolution declaring its Fourth Round Present Need of 73 units and a Fourth Round Prospective Need of 260 units, based on DCA's calculations. On January 29, 2025, Montgomery Township filed its Fourth Round DJ action with the Program/Superior Court, pursuant to the requirements of the amended FHA and the Administrative Directive #14-2024. The Township's Fourth Round Present Need/Prospective Need resolution was uncontested. Thereafter, on March 26, 2025, the Superior Court issued an Order which accepted the Township's Fourth Round Present Need/Prospective Need. The Township's Fourth Round DJ Filing and the April 8, 2025 Order are included as Appendix 3 of the full 2025 Fourth Round HPE/FSP.

As previously noted, the Township's Planning Board adopted a 2025 Fourth Round Housing Plan Element and Fair Share Plan on June 26, 2025, and the Township Committee endorsed it on July 3, 2025. The adopted plan was timely filed within 48 hours with the Dispute Resolution Program as required by the amended FHA. As permitted under the amended FHA, challenges to the 2025 Township's adopted 2025 Fourth Round HPE/FSP were filed before the August 31, 2025, deadline. Fair Share Housing Center (FSHC) and other interested parties filed a challenge to the Plan, the Affordable Housing Dispute Resolution mediation process began. At the time of the drafting of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP, there has been no formal recommendation from the Program. This Amended HPE/FSP modifies the compliance mechanisms satisfying the Fourth Round Prospective Need obligation.

On August 29, 2025, E. Khan Development Corp. ("EKD") – the owner and developer of the Kenvue Property – filed a challenge to the Township's intent to remove the Kenvue Property from the 2025 Fourth Round HPE/FSP, which was announced during the Township Committee town hall meeting held on August 11, 2025. A second challenge was filed by Montgomery Neighbors United ("MNU") on August 29, 2025, requesting that the Township amend its compliance plan to remove the Kenvue site. A third challenge was filed by SaveMontgomery.org ("SMO") on September 2, 2025, requesting that the Township amend its compliance plan to remove the Kenvue site. A fourth challenge was filed by FSHC on September 2, 2025, requesting additional documentation for the Fourth Round compliance mechanisms proposed.

On November 12, 2025, EKD filed a supplemental letter and expert report addressed to the Program objecting to the Township's effort to remove the Kenvue site from the 2025 HPE/FSP.

A Settlement Conference with the Program Judge and Special Adjudicator was held on November 14, 2025.

Following the Settlement Conference, the Township filed a letter on November 26, 2025, addressed to the program as a formal notice of the Township's intent to amend the Fourth Round HPE/FSP and outlined the proposed compliance mechanisms.

On December 15, EKD filed a supplemental letter addressed to the Program objecting to the Township's proposed compliance mechanisms as part of the proposed amendments to the Fourth Round HPE/FSP outlined in the Township's November 26, 2025, letter.

The Township filed a letter, dated December 18, 2025, addressed to the Program Judge in advance of the Dispute Resolution Program Session on December 19, 2025. The letter contained formal responses to the original and supplemental objections filed and included as attachments additional documentation in support of the proposed plan amendment.

On December 18, 2025, SMO filed a letter addressed to the Program in response to the December 15, 2025 supplemental letter from EKD.

Both SMO and MNU supported the Township's intent to amend the Fourth Round HPE/FSP to remove the Kenvue site.

A Program Session was held on December 19, 2025.

Pursuant to the amended FHA and as committed to in the Township's adopted 2025 Fourth Round HEFSP, the Township will adopt all ordinances and resolutions implementing the HPE/FSP, as amended by this 2026 Amended Fourth Round HPE/FSP, by the March 15, 2026, deadline.

SATISFACTION OF THE FOURTH ROUND OBLIGATION (PAGES 52-83 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

Paragraph 3 on page 52 is repealed and replaced with the paragraph included below. The remaining content on page 52 is unchanged.

Replacing paragraph 3: As demonstrated in the Summary Tables at the end of this section, the Township has satisfied its Fourth Round obligation with extensions of expiring controls and bonus credits.

Pages 53-77 of the 2025 HPE/FSP contain subsections describing the compliance mechanisms and the application of Fourth Round bonuses. Pages 78-83 contain Summary Tables demonstrating satisfaction of the Prior Round, Third Round, and Fourth Round obligations. Changes to these materials are explained under the applicable subsections below.

EXTENSIONS OF CONTROLS (PAGES 53-57 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

The Extensions of Controls section on pages 53-57 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with a new Extensions of Controls section included herein.

COAH acknowledged through its rules that the preservation of affordable housing is as important as the creation of new affordable units. This viewpoint was specifically upheld by the New Jersey Supreme Court In re Adoption of N.J.A.C. 5:96 & 5:97 by N.J. Council on Affordable Housing[1] concerning credit for the extension of controls (i.e., recorded covenants) restricting the units to the affordable housing market. The concept is to maintain units that would otherwise be lost to the regular housing market by the re-imposition of controls on affordability for a period of at least 30 years.

Pike Run (Bellemead)

As previously discussed, Pike Run (Bellemead) is an existing inclusionary development located in the R-1 Single Family Residential District and the Planned Residential Development optional development alternative. The 267-acre site, located at Block 5001, Lot 1 (which has since been subdivided) has a total of 1,288 units including 210 affordable family rentals. The affordability controls (declaration of covenants) on the existing affordable units at Pike Run will expire between 2028 and 2031, about halfway through the Fourth Round (see Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP). Following the adoption of the 2025 Fourth Round HPE/FSP, the Township was able to reach an agreement with the owner of the rental units at

[1] - 221 N.J. 1 (2015)

Pike Run to extend expiring affordability controls on a portion of the existing units. Additionally, the declaration of covenants for all 210 units are included as Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP. In accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14, the Township will apply credits from the extension of controls on 96 of the 210 family rental units towards its 260-unit Fourth Round obligation.

Pursuant to the amended FHA, the Township and the owner of the property will execute an agreement for extensions of controls on at least 96 family affordable rental units whose controls are due to expire.

Because these extensions of controls are for rental units, the amended FHA permits the Township to claim 0.5 bonuses per unit, for a total of 48 bonuses. These 48 bonuses will be applied towards the Township's Fourth Round obligation.

Extension of Expiring Controls Criteria

The following criteria were established by COAH for their extension of expiring controls program *(*N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14(a)-(c)). Each rule appears in italics, followed by the response. These criteria remain in place and will be met with the extensions of expiring controls proposed for the Fourth Round:

1. The unit meets the criteria for prior-cycle or post-1986 credits set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:97-4.2 or -4.3.

2. The affordability controls for the unit are scheduled to expire during the time period in which credit is sought.

3. The municipality shall obtain a continuing certificate of occupancy or a certified statement from the municipal building inspector stating that the restricted unit meets all code standards.

4. If a unit requires repair and/or rehabilitation work in order to receive a continuing certificate of occupancy or certified statement from the municipal building inspector, the municipality shall fund and complete the work. A municipality may utilize its affordable housing trust fund to purchase the unit and/or complete the necessary repair and/or rehabilitation work.

5. Information regarding the development and specific units, on forms provided by the Council. Though COAH no longer exists, information on each unit is maintained in the records of the municipality.

6. A written commitment from the owner to extend controls, or evidence that the controls have been extended, in accordance with UHAC. Montgomery Township and the owner of the property will execute an appropriate agreement for the extension of affordability controls for an additional 30 years starting on the date that the previous affordability controls expired.

7. The proposed or filed deed restriction for the extended control period.

8. A pro forma for any proposed acquisition and/or rehabilitation costs. No rehabilitation to code for the units is anticipated based on the annual fire inspections conducted by the Township.

9. Documentation demonstrating the source(s) of funding. The Township will use funds from its affordable housing trust fund as indicated in its 2026 Fourth Round Amended Spending Plan (see Appendix 7 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP).

10. A municipal resolution appropriating funds or a resolution of intent to bond in the event of a shortfall of funds.

11. A draft or adopted operating manual that includes a description of the program procedures and administration in accordance with UHAC.

12. An affirmative marketing plan in accordance with UHAC. Since the units were and continue to be occupied by low- and moderate-income households that were originally informed of units for occupancy in accordance with the Township's affirmative marketing regulations, no affirmative marketing plan for the extensions of controls is necessary.

13. Designation of an experienced administrative agent, including a statement of his or her qualifications, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:96-18. Pike Run already employs Piazza & Associates, an experienced affordable housing administrative agent that meets the qualifications of N.J.A.C. 5:96-18.

McKinley Commons

As previously discussed, McKinley Commons, also known as Montgomery Hills, is an existing inclusionary development with 35 affordable for-sale units and 60 affordable age-restricted rentals. The age-restricted units are located at Block 37003, Lots 6.840 through 6.929, and the family for-sale units are located at Block 37003, Lots 6.780 through 6.837. The entire development is within the APT/TH Apartment Townhouse Multi-Family Residential Zoning District. The affordability controls (deed restrictions) on the existing affordable units at McKinley Commons will expire between 2032 and 2034, close to the end of the Fourth Round in 2035 (see Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP). In accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14, the Township will apply credits from the extension of controls on 58 of the 60 age-restricted affordable rental units and on the 35 family for-sale units towards its 260-unit Fourth Round obligation.

The Township has notified the owners of the family for-sale units to begin the process of extending existing expiring controls. Notice letters of the extension of affordability controls were sent to the owner of each for-sale units. Following the notice letters and publication in the newspaper, Township Committee Resolution #25-11-374 was adopted on November 13, 2025, which authorized the Township to implement the extensions of controls program for the affordable housing units within Montgomery Hills, including needed rehabilitation work, if necessary, and to pay the owners in exchange for a new 30-year affordable housing deed restriction. Notice of the adoption of the Resolution was also provided by publication. The Township has committed to funding the extensions by adopting Ordinance #25-1766 on December 4, 2025. The Township has already completed inspections for 30 of the 35 family for-sale units at McKinley Court. Extensions of Control documentation is included in Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP.

Additionally, notice letters of the extension of affordability controls have been sent to the 60 age-restricted units. The Township will continue its efforts to extend all 60 extensions and obtain the necessary documentation, such as deed restrictions and financing agreements. Such documentation will be included as Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP.

Pursuant to the amended FHA, the Township and the owner of the properties will execute an agreement for extensions of controls on the 60 age-restricted affordable rental units and the 35 family affordable for-sale units whose controls are due to expire, in return for an estimated payment of $1,400,000 to the property owner from the Township's affordable housing trust fund. The estimated payment is calculated as follows:

- 60 age-restricted affordable rental units x $17,500/unit = $1,050,000
- 35 family affordable for-sale units x $10,000/unit = $350,000

Although there are 60 age-restricted rentals at this site, only a maximum of 58 senior units can be counted towards the Fourth Round. As such, the Township is only claiming credits for 58 of the 60 senior units towards the Fourth Round.

Because part of these extensions of controls are for rental units, the amended FHA permits the Township to claim 0.5 bonuses per unit, for a total of 29 bonuses (58 senior affordable rental units x 0.5 = 29). However, only 17 of the 29 bonuses will be applied towards the Township's Fourth Round obligation to not exceed the 65 maximum Fourth Round bonuses permitted.

This leaves two surplus senior rental extensions for the future round. However, since the Township will extend affordability controls on all 60 senior rental units, the cost of all 60 extensions of controls is accounted for in the Fourth Round spending plan. The Township will execute the deed restrictions on the sites.

Extension of Expiring Controls Criteria

The following criteria were established by COAH for their extension of expiring controls program (N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14(a)-(c)). Each rule appears in italics, followed by the response. These criteria remain in place and will be met with the extensions of expiring controls proposed for the Fourth Round:

1. The unit meets the criteria for prior-cycle or post-1986 credits set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:97-4.2 or -4.3.

2. The affordability controls for the unit are scheduled to expire during the time period in which credit is sought.

3. The municipality shall obtain a continuing certificate of occupancy or a certified statement from the municipal building inspector stating that the restricted unit meets all code standards.

4. If a unit requires repair and/or rehabilitation work in order to receive a continuing certificate of occupancy or certified statement from the municipal building inspector, the municipality shall fund and complete the work. A municipality may utilize its affordable housing trust fund to purchase the unit and/or complete the necessary repair and/or rehabilitation work.

5. Information regarding the development and specific units, on forms provided by the Council. Though COAH no longer exists, information on each unit is maintained in the records of the municipality.

6. A written commitment from the owner to extend controls, or evidence that the controls have been extended, in accordance with UHAC. As previously discussed, Township Committee Resolution #25-11-374 was adopted on November 13, 2025, which authorized the Township to implement the extensions of controls program for the affordable housing units within Montgomery Hills, including needed rehabilitation work, if necessary, and to pay the owners in exchange for a new 30-year affordable housing deed restriction. The 35 family for-sale units are 95/5 units, where the owner is required to pay the Township 95% of the profits above and beyond the affordable sales price after the deed restriction has ceased. The Township will extend the controls on each of the 35 affordable for-sale units for an additional 30 years.

   As for the 60 age-restricted rental units, Montgomery Township and the owner of the property will execute an appropriate agreement for the extension of affordability controls for an additional 30 years starting on the date that the previous affordability controls expired. As previously discussed, the Township will continue its efforts to extend the 60 rental extensions and obtain the necessary documentation, such as deed restrictions and financing agreements.

7. The proposed or filed deed restriction for the extended control period.

8. A pro forma for any proposed acquisition and/or rehabilitation costs. No rehabilitation to code for the units is anticipated based on the annual fire inspections conducted by the Township.

9. Documentation demonstrating the source(s) of funding. The Township will use funds from its affordable housing trust fund as indicated in its Spending Plan (see Appendix 7 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP).

10. A municipal resolution appropriating funds or a resolution of intent to bond in the event of a shortfall of funds.

11. A draft or adopted operating manual that includes a description of the program procedures and administration in accordance with UHAC.

12. An affirmative marketing plan in accordance with UHAC. Since the units were and continue to be occupied by low- and moderate-income households that were originally informed of units for occupancy in accordance with the Township's affirmative marketing regulations, no affirmative marketing plan for the extensions of controls is necessary.

13. Designation of an experienced administrative agent, including a statement of his or her qualifications, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:96-18. McKinley Commons already employs CGP&H, an experienced affordable housing administrative agent that meets the qualifications of N.J.A.C. 5:96-18.

Montgomery Glen

As previously discussed, Montgomery Glen, also known as Montgomery Walk, is an existing inclusionary residential development within the APT/TH Apartment Townhouse Multi-Family Residential Zoning District. The development contains 19 affordable family for-sale units at Block 37006, Lots 20.01 through 20.20. The project contains ten low-income units and nine moderate-income units. The affordability controls (deed restrictions) on the existing affordable units at Montgomery Glen will expire in 2032, close to the end of the Fourth Round in 2035 (see Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP). In accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14, the Township will apply credits from the extension of controls on the 19 family for-sale units towards its 260-unit Fourth Round obligation.

The Township has notified the owners of the family for-sale units to begin the process of extending existing expiring controls. Notice letters of the extension of affordability controls were sent to the family for-sale units. Following the notice letters, and publication in the designated newspaper of general circulation, Township Committee Resolution #25-11-375 was adopted on November 13, 2025, which authorized the Township to implement the extensions of controls program for the affordable housing units within Montgomery Glen (River Birch Circle), including needed rehabilitation work, if necessary, and to pay the owners in exchange for a new 30-year affordable housing deed restriction. Notice of the adoption of the resolution was thereafter published in the designated newspaper of general circulation for the Township. The Township has committed to funding the extensions by adopting Ordinance #25-1766 on December 4, 2025. The Township has already completed inspections for 16 of the 19 family for-sale units at Montgomery Glen. Extensions of Control documentation is included in Appendix 4 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP.

Pursuant to the amended FHA, the Township and the owner of the properties will execute an agreement for extensions of controls on the 19 family affordable for-sale units whose controls are due to expire, in return for an estimated payment of $190,000 (19 family affordable for-sale units x $10,000/unit = $190,000) to the property owner from the Township's affordable housing trust fund.

Extension of Expiring Controls Criteria

The following criteria were established by COAH for their extension of expiring controls program *(*N.J.A.C. 5:97-6.14(a)-(c)). Each rule appears in italics, followed by the response. These criteria remain in place and will be met with the extensions of expiring controls proposed for the Fourth Round:

1. The unit meets the criteria for prior-cycle or post-1986 credits set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:97-4.2 or -4.3.

2. The affordability controls for the unit are scheduled to expire during the time period in which credit is sought.

3. The municipality shall obtain a continuing certificate of occupancy or a certified statement from the municipal building inspector stating that the restricted unit meets all code standards.

4. If a unit requires repair and/or rehabilitation work in order to receive a continuing certificate of occupancy or certified statement from the municipal building inspector, the municipality shall fund and complete the work. A municipality may utilize its affordable housing trust fund to purchase the unit and/or complete the necessary repair and/or rehabilitation work.

5. Information regarding the development and specific units, on forms provided by the Council. Though COAH no longer exists, information on each unit is maintained in the records of the municipality.

6. A written commitment from the owner to extend controls, or evidence that the controls have been extended, in accordance with UHAC. As previously discussed, Township Committee Resolution #25-11-375 was adopted on November 13, 2025, which authorized the Township to implement the extensions of controls program for the affordable housing units within Montgomery Glen (River Birch Circle), including needed rehabilitation work, if necessary, and to pay the owners in exchange for a new 30-year affordable housing deed restriction. The 19 family for-sale units are 95/5 units, where the owner is required to pay the Township 95% of the profits above and beyond the affordable sales price after the deed restriction has ceased. The Township will extend the controls on each of the 35 affordable for-sale units for an additional 30 years.

7. The proposed or filed deed restriction for the extended control period.

8. A pro forma for any proposed acquisition and/or rehabilitation costs. No rehabilitation to code for the units is anticipated based on the annual fire inspections conducted by the Township.

9. Documentation demonstrating the source(s) of funding. The Township will use funds from its affordable housing trust fund as indicated in its Spending Plan (see Appendix 7 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP).

10. A municipal resolution appropriating funds or a resolution of intent to bond in the event of a shortfall of funds.

11. A draft or adopted operating manual that includes a description of the program procedures and administration in accordance with UHAC.

12. An affirmative marketing plan in accordance with UHAC. Since the units were and continue to be occupied by low- and moderate-income households that were originally informed of units for occupancy in accordance with the Township's affirmative marketing regulations, no affirmative marketing plan for the extensions of controls is necessary.

13. Designation of an experienced administrative agent, including a statement of his or her qualifications, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:96-18. Montgomery Glen already employs CGP&H, an experienced affordable housing administrative agent that meets the qualifications of N.J.A.C. 5:96-18.

Fourth Round Bonuses, Maximum of 65 Bonuses

New types of bonuses are permitted in the Fourth Round as set forth in the amended FHA. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:27D-311.k(7), the 58 extensions of expiring controls on the affordable senior rental units at the existing McKinley Court site and the 96 extensions of expiring controls on the affordable family rental units at the existing Pike Run site addressing the Fourth Round are eligible for 65 Fourth Round bonuses.

VERY LOW-INCOME UNITS – OVERALL PRIOR, THIRD, FOURTH ROUND CUMULATIVE CALCULATION (PAGES 84-86 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

Paragraph 1 on page 84 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced with the paragraph included below. Paragraphs 2 and 3 and remaining text on pages 85-86 of this section are removed. Table 41 found on page 84-85 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with Amended Table 41 found below.

Replacing paragraph 1: Pursuant to the amended FHA (P.L. 2008, c.46), municipalities must ensure that at least 13% of affordable housing units approved and constructed (or to be constructed) after July 17, 2008 are available to very low-income households. Thus, as seen in Amended Table 41 below, overall, a total of 353 affordable units approved and constructed or to be constructed to address a current Township fair share obligation generate a 46-unit very low-income requirement, which the Township has addressed with 69 very low-income units constructed or approved, representing approximately 19.55% of the 353 total affordable units. Amended Table 41 summarizes the Township's affordable housing mechanisms that generate and address the very low-income requirement.

INCOME DISTRIBUTION (PAGE 86 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

The Income Distribution section on page 86 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with a new Income Distribution section included herein.

INCOME AND BEDROOM DISTRIBUTION

Under COAH's rules at N.J.A.C. 5:93-7.3 and UHAC at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., non-age-restricted affordable units must adhere to the following bedroom distribution:

- No more than 20% may be one-bedroom or efficiency units;
- At least 30% must be two-bedroom units;
- At least 20% must be three-bedroom units.

Prior Round: The Prior Round compliance mechanisms include 156 affordable family units within the following projects:

- Montgomery Glen (19 units)
- Pike Run (102 of 210 units)
- McKinley Commons (35 units)

All units in the Prior Round were developed prior to UHAC and were not subject to the bedroom-income distribution requirements.

Third Round: Table A.1 provides a summary of the bedroom-income distribution of affordable family units in Montgomery Township for the Third Round, demonstrating compliance with these standards.

TABLE A.1. INCOME AND BEDROOM DISTRIBUTION, FAMILY UNITS, THIRD ROUND

Income Distribution	Bedroom Distribution			Total
	One-Bedroom/ Efficiency	Two-Bedroom	Three-Bedroom
Very Low-Income	14	20	7	41 (11.23%)*
Low-Income	28	66	34	128 (35.07%)
Moderate-Income	52	97	47	196 (53.7%)
Total	94 (25.75%)	183 (50.14%)	88 (24.11%)	365 (100%)

The above bedroom and income distribution includes 365 affordable family units within the following projects:

- The Willows at Orchard (40 units)
- Grove at Montgomery (27 units)
- The Haven at Princeton (32 units)
- Harlingen Village (11 units)

- Hillside at Montgomery (23 units)
- Habitat for Humanity House (1 unit)
- The Somerset at Montgomery (23 units)
- Railsedge Blawenburg Village (3 units) – pre-UHAC; no very low-income requirement generated
- Apartments at Montgomery Crossing (86 units)
- Village Walk (11 units)
- Pike Run (108 of 210 units) – pre-UHAC; no very low-income requirement generated

*Of the units satisfying the Third Round obligation, 108 units (from Pike Run) were developed prior to UHAC and were not subject to the bedroom-income distribution. However, all remaining units were built post-UHAC and conform to the bedroom-income distribution.

Some developments satisfying the Third Round obligation were constructed prior to July 17, 2008 and did not generate a very low-income requirement. As such, the number of very low-income units is skewed in this chart and should be calculated based on a total of 254 family units (365 – 108 Pike Run units - 3 Railsedge Blawenburg Village units = 254 family units) triggering the 13% requirement or 33.02 very low-income units. The Township exceeds this with a total of 41 very low-income units provided in the Third Round.

Fourth Round: The Fourth Round compliance mechanisms include 150 affordable family units within the following projects:

- McKinley Commons (35 units)
- Pike Run (96 units)
- Montgomery Glen (19 units)

All units in the Fourth Round for which affordability controls will be extended for the Fourth Round were developed prior to UHAC and were not subject to the bedroom-income distribution requirements.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING ADMINISTRATION AND AFFIRMATIVE MARKETING (PAGE 87-88 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

The Affordable Housing Administration and Affirmative Marketing section on page 87-88 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with a new Affordable Housing Administration and Affirmative Marketing section included herein.

Affirmative Marketing

The Affirmative Marketing Plan is a regional marketing strategy designed to attract buyers and/or renters of all majority and minority groups…to housing units which are being marketed by a developer or sponsor of affordable housing. It is a continuing program and covers the period of deed restriction.

Montgomery Township currently has a Court-approved Third Round Affordable Housing Ordinance. The Township will prepare and adopt an updated Affordable Housing Ordinance (Appendix 5 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP) in accordance with court-upheld COAH's rules, DCA's new 2025 regulations at N.J.A.C. 5:99, and UHAC's new 2025 regulations, as well as to address any terms of the court-approved Third Round 2017 and 2022 amended FSHC agreement, as necessary. The Affordable Housing Ordinance will govern the establishment of affordable units in the Township as well as regulating the occupancy of such units. The Township's Fair Share Ordinance covers the phasing of affordable units, the low/moderate income split, including that 13% of all units approved and constructed since 2008 be affordable to very low-income households earning no more than 30% of median income, bedroom distribution, occupancy standards, affordability controls, establishing rents and sales prices, affirmative marketing, income qualification, etc.

The Township has established the position of the Municipal Housing Liaison and has appointed a staff member to the position. However, the Township relies on outside experienced affordable housing organizations to conduct the administration and affirmative marketing of its affordable housing sites.

The Township has a court-approved Third Round Affirmative Marketing Plan and has prepared an updated Fourth Round Affirmative Marketing Plan (Appendix 8 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP) in accordance with DCA's new 2025 regulations at N.J.A.C. 5:99, UHAC's new 2025 regulations, any remaining relevant COAH rules not superseded by either the new 2025 DCA regulations or the 2025 revised UHAC rules, as well as terms of the court-approved Third Round FSHC 2017/2022 amended agreement. The Township's Affirmative Marketing Plan is designed to attract buyers and/or renters of all majority and minority groups, regardless of race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital or familial status, gender, affectional or sexual orientation, disability, age or number of children to the affordable units located in the Township. Additionally, the Affirmative Marketing Plan is intended to target those potentially eligible persons who are least likely to apply for affordable units and who reside in the Township's housing region, Region 3, consisting of Hunterdon, Middlesex, and Somerset counties.

The Affirmative Marketing Plan lays out the random-selection and income qualification procedure of the administrative agent, which is consistent with COAH's rules and N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1. All newly created affordable units will comply with the minimum 30-year or 40-year (for rentals) affordability control required by UHAC, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq. This plan must be adhered to by all private, nonprofit or municipal developers of affordable housing units and must cover the period of deed restriction or affordability controls on each affordable unit.

As required by the court-approved Third Round FSHC 2017/2022 amended agreement, the Affirmative Marketing Plan lists FSHC, the New Jersey State Conference of the NAACP, the Latino Action Network, the New Brunswick branch of the NAACP, the Plainfield Area branch of the NAACP, the Perth Amboy branch of the NAACP, and the Metuchen/Edison branch of the NAACP. The Township shall, as part of its regional affirmative marketing strategies during its implementation of this plan, provide notice to those organizations of all available affordable housing units. The Township also agrees to require any other entities, including developers or individual or companies retained to do affirmative marketing, to comply with this paragraph. Finally, in accordance with the July 2020 amendment to the FHA, The Township will include in its Affirmative Marketing Plan the requirement that all units subject to affirmative marketing requirements be listed on the state Housing Resource Center ("HRC") website.[2]

The Spending Plan section on page 88-89 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with a new Spending Plan section included herein.

On March 5, 1997, COAH approved the Township's mandatory development fee ordinance. This ordinance was adopted by the municipality on April 17, 1997. An amendment to the development fee ordinance was approved by COAH on December 5, 2008, which set to establish residential development fees in the amount of 1.5% of the equalized assessed value of residential development and nonresidential development fees in the amount of 2.5% of the equalized assessed value of nonresidential development. The amendment was formally adopted by the Township on December 18, 2008. Subsequently, the Township adopted an amended development fee ordinance on July 19, 2018.

Eligible Trust Fund Expenditures

"A municipality may use revenues collected from the development fees for any activity approved by the Council (now the Court) for addressing the municipal fair share…Municipalities are encouraged to use development fee revenues to attract other funds…"

As of December 31, 2025, the trust fund maintained a balance of $774,657.10. The Township has prepared an Amended Fourth Round Spending Plan, which discusses anticipated revenues, collection of revenues, and the use of revenues, has been prepared in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:93-5.1(c) and is included as Appendix 7 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP. All collected revenues are placed in the Township's Affordable Housing Trust Fund and will be dispensed for the use of affordable housing activities as indicated in the Fourth Round Amended Spending Plan. The Amended Fourth Round Spending Plan has been prepared in accordance with DCA's new 2025 regulations at N.J.A.C. 5:99, UHAC's new 2025 regulations , relevant COAH rules, not superseded by either the 2025 DCA regulations or the 2025 revised UHAC rules as well as to address any terms of the court-approved Third Round 2017/2022 amended FSHC agreement.

The Township may, in the future, seek to amend its Spending Plan and obtain court approval to use its affordable housing trust funds for the following additional permitted affordable housing activities, including new, emergent affordable housing activities, subject to applicable limitations and minimum expenditures:

- Rehabilitation program;
- New construction of affordable housing units and related development costs;
- Extensions or improvements of roads and infrastructure directly serving affordable housing development sites;
- Acquisition and/or improvement of land to be used for affordable housing;

- Purchase of existing market-rate or affordable housing for the purpose of maintaining or implementing affordability controls, such as in the event of foreclosure;
- Green building strategies designed to be cost-saving for low- and moderate income households, either for new construction that is not funded by other sources, or as part of necessary maintenance or repair of existing units;
- Maintenance and repair of affordable housing units;
- Repayment of municipal bonds issued to finance low- and moderate-income housing activity; and
- Affordability assistance as set forth below.

A portion of development fees and interest collected must be used to provide affordability assistance to low- and moderate-income households in affordable units included in a municipal Fair Share Plan and one third for the creation of very low-income units. Additionally, no more than 20% of trust fund revenues collected each year may be expended on administration, including, but not limited to, salaries and benefits for municipal employees or consultant fees necessary to develop or implement a rehabilitation program, a new construction program, an HPE/FSP, and/or an affirmative marketing program.

The adoption of the Township's 2026 Amended Fourth Round Spending Plan will constitute a "commitment" for expenditure per the FHA at N.J.S.A. 52:27D-329.2, with a four-year time period for expenditure that will start with the entry of the Superior Court's Fourth Round Judgment of Compliance and Repose and/or Compliance Certification.

COST GENERATION (PAGE 90 OF 2025 HPE/FSP)

The Cost Generation section on page 90 of the 2025 HPE/FSP is repealed and replaced in its entirety with a new Cost Generation section included herein.

Montgomery Township's Land Development Ordinance has been reviewed to eliminate unnecessary cost generating standards, and provides for expediting the review of development applications containing affordable housing. Such expediting may consist of, but is not limited to, scheduling of pre-application conferences and special monthly public hearings. All development applications containing affordable housing must be reviewed for consistency with the Land Development Ordinance, Residential Site Improvement Standards ("RSIS") (N.J.A.C. 5:21-1 et seq.) and the mandate of the FHA regarding unnecessary cost generating features. Montgomery Township will comply with COAH's requirements for unnecessary cost generating requirements, N.J.A.C. 5:93-10.1, procedures for development applications containing affordable housing, N.J.A.C. 5:93-10.4, and requirements for special studies and escrow accounts where an application contains affordable housing, N.J.A.C. 5:93-10.3. A draft amendment to the Development Fee Ordinance in accordance with DCA's new 2025 regulations at N.J.A.C. 5:99, and UHAC's new 2025 regulations is provided in Appendix 5 of this 2026 Amended HPE/FSP.

HOUSING REHABILITATION PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

Proposal for Professional Services

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

CGP&H is a New Jersey Department of Community Affairs approved Affordable Housing Administrative Agent, and we are currently providing Administrative Agent and Housing Rehabilitation Services in more than 85 municipalities throughout the State of New Jersey.

CGP&H specializes in all aspects of affordable housing, planning, affordable housing compliance, and the procurement of grants and loans for our clients. Founded in 1993, our involvement in affordable housing projects grows every year. CGP&H serves as the Administrative Agent for more than 6,000 affordable homes and has also managed the rehabilitation of more than 3,500 owner and renter occupied units. Currently, two-thirds of all the professional services that our 42-person firm provides are related to affordable housing. Please visit our company website, CGPH.net for additional information about our company.

Some examples of the affordable housing-related work that our team has designed and implemented include:

- Administering Owner-Occupied and Renter-Occupied Housing Rehabilitation Programs;
- Designing and Implementing Innovative and Successful Market to Affordable Programs;
- Providing state of the art Administrative Agent Services in compliance with Uniform Housing Affordability Controls (UHAC);
- Expertise with Foreclosure and Enforcement Issues;
- Creating and Implementing Creative Affordability Assistance Programs that work;
- Preparing Income Eligibility Determinations;
- Implementing Accessory Apartment Programs;
- Developing fully compliant and user-friendly Affirmative Marketing Plans; and;
- Planning Services to create or amend existing Housing Element & Fair Share Plans.

CGP&H can quickly create customized policy and procedure manuals for Affordable Housing administration and Housing Rehabilitation programs that are proven, comprehensive and are often disseminated by the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs or Court Masters as model manuals.

Housing Rehabilitation Services

We have overseen the rehabilitation of more than 3,500 homes in municipalities through New Jersey and Pennsylvania, currently providing housing rehabilitation services to over 40 of our municipal clients and 2 county clients. CGP&H always ensures that every housing rehabilitation program is seamless and rooted in the principles of maximizing efficiencies while imparting a visible, long-term positive impact for communities. From program creation to full-case processing through completion of construction and issuance of warranties to homeowners, CGP&H offers a full-service housing rehabilitation solution second to none. Always compliant with regulatory requirements, our professionals ensure an optimal outcome every time.

Our housing rehabilitation program website, www.hip.cgph.net will provide useful information for both homeowners and contractors interested in participating in the municipality's Home Improvement program. It also makes it easy for homeowners to submit a one-page electronic preliminary application and for contractors to obtain a contractor application at their convenience. Please visit www.hip.cgph.net to see how our specialized website would serve the municipality's residents. Our municipal clients choose CGP&H, and fellow planners and attorneys consistently recommend us to their clients because our programs are carefully designed to comply with all state and federal regulations, produce the most units per dollar, and result in quality construction with satisfied homeowners and renters. Other areas where CGP&H continues to shine include:

- Creation of new or updating existing Policies and Procedures Manuals to be thorough and in full compliance of applicable federal and/or state regulations
- Comprehensive and extensively documented case files which municipal clients; HUD consultants, and state and federal auditors consistently praise
- Detailed work write-up specifications and bid documents that are second to none
- Progress inspections during the construction phase that increase contractor compliance
- Innovative, customized multi-media marketing to homeowners and contractors alike
- Local contractor outreach, encouraging participation from the best local contractors
- Successfully manage difficult contractors that prove to be sub-standard
- Friendly, always accessible, and bilingual translation services
- Extensive phone support, and in person assistance whenever required

The satisfaction rate among our applicants and quality of our case files have set the benchmark on which other rehabilitation programs are judged. In fact, on many occasions, our firm has been brought in after municipal programs were severely mismanaged by either other consultants or in-house staff, such as Bound Brook, Freehold Borough, Fairfield (Salem), New Brunswick and the City of Passaic. In every case, CGP&H turned those programs into successes, lauded by the very state and federal agencies that previously had problems with those municipal programs. Whether working in a problem situation, or in a municipality that is brand new to housing rehabilitation or even taking over administration of a currently successful program, our approach is consistent to achieve the desired results. These reasons, coupled with our highly experienced management and case team members, are the primary reasons for the successes for each of the housing rehabilitation programs we administer throughout New Jersey for our municipal clients, as well as the housing rehabilitation programs we administer in Pennsylvania.

THE CGP&H APPROACH - HOUSING REHABILITATION SERVICES

Program Design and Marketing:

In coordination with our municipal client's staff, elected officials, its attorney and planner, CGP&H creates and/or updates a comprehensive Program Policies and Procedures manual and forms to ensure effective implementation of the program that meets all State and Superior Court requirements.

For each client municipality, CGP&H implements a Marketing Plan to recruit interested homeowners to the Program. In consultation with the municipality, CGP&H employs a variety of proven free and low-cost strategies to advertise the program within the municipality which usually includes, but is not limited to, advertising on the municipal website, appending announcements and/or flyers to appropriate municipal mailings, creating 11" by 17" laminated posters and complementary flyers and more detailed brochures for display and distribution at key high visibility locations. We also utilize free local cable TV advertising, if available, to establish the program's applicant pool/waiting list and expand contractor interest as well. We also use email blasts, twitter, and Facebook in cases where the municipality already provides such services to its residents. If future program marketing is needed, CGP&H also periodically prepares press releases for a series of free advertising opportunities. We offer to make group presentations to community organizations or to the public at large at a client's municipal building, and even to local contractors to explain the program and its benefits to them. Paid newspaper advertisements are utilized as a last resort, when deemed necessary and appropriate and is almost never necessary. The methods we use, and the order of their deployment, are always analyzed to implement the most effective combination of strategies at the right time. Extensive marketing efforts are essential for all successful housing rehabilitation programs to meet their productivity objectives. Our tried-and-true approach to marketing is one of the many phases of a strong rehabilitation program that differentiates us from any other provider. Outreach marketing samples are available upon request.

Each of our municipal Housing Rehabilitation Programs are also featured on our website, www.hip.cgph.net. This easy-to-navigate website allows interested homeowners and contractors to review program requirements, to learn more about the program, and even to apply. It makes it easy for applicants to quickly submit a one-page electronic preliminary application and for contractors to obtain a contractor application at their convenience. Additionally, the website provides an overview of the housing rehabilitation process via a Frequently Asked Questions page, as well as before and after photos of housing rehabilitation projects and homeowner testimonials to help potential applicants visualize the program benefits. A Resources page provides other possible funding sources and related services, as well as house maintenance, fire safety and lead hazards information. The Resources page also provides links to the state Division of Consumers Affairs codes and standards, as well as home improvement contractors. Please visit www.hip.cgph.net to see how our specialized website would serve local residents.

Reporting and Required Meetings (On-Going):

CGP&H provides the housing rehabilitation data required for annual State or Court reporting, as well as providing periodic reporting to suit our municipal clients' needs. Samples of program reports can be provided upon request.

Case Management:

CGP&H administers the applicant case processing and rehabilitation of eligible homes within our client municipalities. All of the following items are included within the scope of services that we provide to our housing rehabilitation program clients.

For accuracy and efficiency purposes, most of our documents are in either Microsoft Excel or Access, and our standard bid, closing, and all other program forms are designed to cost-effectively merge with the applicant's information, so that more of our professional time can be spent on higher level matters with applicants, homeowners, and contractors, another difference between our company and others.

Application Processing:

CGP&H processed homeowner or renter applications to ensure that homes are occupied by income-eligible households at the time of application. This is accomplished by verifying applicants' income and assets and finalizing the eligibility determination of each applicant.

This process starts with an applicant either submitting an easy online preliminary application to CGP&H or CGP&H pre-qualifying interested households by phone, whichever is the applicant's preference, and then placing them in the program's waiting list/applicant pool. The preliminary application process serves a dual benefit of not wasting the applicants' or the program's time if the household does not meet several basic eligibility criteria. Once a household is prequalified, formal application invitations are mailed or emailed per the applicant's preference, while program openings are currently available. Upon receipt of a completed application, we assign a case number to protect the applicant's confidentiality, set up a case file, and assign a case manager to guide the applicant through the process. All case files are kept securely in locked file cabinets.

Since applications are rarely complete at the initial application submission, we work with each household as applications are received to help them through the eligibility certification process. We have three bilingual staff members to assist those in need of either Spanish translation or Hindi language services. For communities that have a significant Spanish-speaking population, our promotional materials can also be made available in Spanish as part of our basic services.

To ensure the utmost accuracy of an applicant's income qualification, our case managers are trained in DCA (COAH) and HUD income determination methods. Our proven HUD- and DCA/Court-compliant systems for verifying income includes an additional step we call "peer review" where a second case manager reviews the income calculation methodology and all the supporting documents before the case is sent over to our program manager for formal review and approval of the case findings. Once a qualified applicant is approved in writing for program participation via a certificate of eligibility, the case manager then coordinates the comprehensive property inspection with the homeowner and our licensed CGP&H program inspector.

Initial Inspections & Bid Specifications:

Once an applicant is approved for program participation, the Program coordinates for the approved homeowner to complete a pre-inspection questionnaire. The questionnaire prepares the homeowner as well as assists the inspector identify any reasons, such as hoarding or active private repairs, which would postpone or prevent a successful inspection. Upon receipt and review of the completed questionnaire with no indicators to prevent the inspection, the Program Inspector schedules the house inspection. The CGP&H inspector then conducts a comprehensive property inspection to identify building, electrical, and plumbing code violations, and health and safety conditions requiring repair or replacement. To expedite our inspection services during our highly productive periods, CGP&H may subcontract with a qualified licensed home inspector to assist with inspection services under the guidance of our Chief Inspector.

Our inspector becomes familiar with our client municipality's local ordinances to ensure that each dwelling unit will have specifications prepared to bring each unit up to state code and/or local ordinance, whichever is stricter. Upon arrival at the residence, the assigned CGP&H inspector reinforces previous communications with the homeowner that the intent of the program is to bring homes into compliance with local and state building code standards. At this meeting with the homeowner(s), our inspector also discusses eligible and ineligible improvements indicated in the initial inspection.

The CGP&H program inspector prepares the detailed work write-up specifications and cost estimates for each property that specify each work task line item by line item. CGP&H case managers then incorporate that into a bid package for each project which includes other critical program specific documentation designed to protect the municipality and to fully explain the program's requirements and expectations to all prospective contractors. Bid packages circulated to bidding contractors do not include any cost estimates. Upon request, we would be happy and proud to provide sample cost estimates and a complete bid package, including a work write-up of an actual case file that would be within the price range of the Program's anticipated per-property rehabilitation cost.

CGP&H inspectors take an extensive number of property photos throughout the entire case process including before and after photos, and progress inspection photos. The photos not only serve to document case progress but are a wonderful tool to assist in preventing and/or resolving any contractual disputes. At the completion of every case, these photos are compiled onto a CD and placed in the permanent case file for the municipality's future reference as well.

Though many municipal housing rehabilitation programs do not have a specific lead paint component, our lead licensed inspectors are well qualified to ensure the contractors comply with the Environmental Protection Agency Renovation, Repair and Painting Rules (40 CFR Part 745) for houses built prior to 1978 with lead paint hazard reduction work. Our inspectors clearly identify the applicable work item(s) marked with the EPA-RRP Rule in the work specifications, as well as spell out the EPA requirements in the General Conditions of the work specifications.

Bidding:

Prior to bid solicitation, the homeowner is required to review the work write-up that was created for their home(s) by the CGP&H Inspector who performed that work. The purpose of this review process is to provide homeowners with a thorough understanding of the proposed/recommended scope of work, to address any questions they may have and to obtain their written approval of the work write-up to avoid future participant-initiated change order requests. Additionally, during this phase the homeowner also reviews the list of contractors and can add or delete any contractor from this list prior to sending out bid notices to contractors. This step serves two important purposes. First, reviewing potential contractors with the homeowner and inviting them to add or delete them to the contractor list makes the homeowner an integral part of the contractor selection process. Secondly, it often helps us build up our list of local contractors that can be added to the program's ongoing contractor list (once they become pre-qualified).

CGP&H's staff notifies contractors of the municipality's program requirements, including procedures that impact bidding, contract award, preconstruction, work write-ups and contractor payments. CGP&H inspectors are also available via telephone over an extended day (earlier and later than normal business hours, to be convenient to both homeowners and contractors), to answer the many questions that arise. Currently, many participating contractors already receive their bid documents via email, which is both convenient and effective for the contractor.

CGP&H staff always conducts a thorough contractor vetting process, reviewing and confirming each contractor's qualifications prior to awarding a job to ensure the contractor meets all program requirements including but not limited to proper licenses, certifications, insurance and reference checks. The contractor list is updated regularly to ensure these documents are kept current. We also have probation and termination procedures for those occasions when warranted. This vetting process is just another reason why our company can boast such a small number of contractor disputes occurring during the construction period.

Construction Phase:

CGP&H coordinates the selection of the contractor with the homeowner. CGP&H then prepares all necessary agreements and loan documents related to the Housing Rehabilitation Program which are executed at a Pre-Construction Conference to be attended by the CGP&H inspector (to preside over the closing and perform notary functions), the contractor, and the homeowner. CGP&H case managers are responsible for creating all lien documents and facilitating the recording of mortgages and modifications to mortgages.

The Municipal Construction Office receives a copy of the work write-up from the case manager following the Pre-Construction Conference. Construction officials can then reference the work write-up when the contractor applies for building permits. This gives the municipality's construction inspection department full insight and a cross reference to help determine which permits are required.

CGP&H inspectors usually perform at least one interim payment inspection and one final payment inspection during the construction phase to monitor compliance with program requirements, and to control and carefully document contract change orders, progress inspections and payments, scheduling and completion of the final inspection and case record completion.

CGP&H generates progress inspection reports for contractor payments. Typically, CGP&H prepares progress (50%), completion (40%), and retention (10%) payment documents supported by applicable inspections and warranties as required. Tracking contractor payments is a critical element of a successful housing rehabilitation program. The customized Progress Inspection Report that CGP&H has created for these programs clearly indicates the line items that are included in a particular contractor payment. In the case of partial payment, the percentage of completion is also included. We have noticed that the Progress Inspection Report form we have been using since 2001 has successfully eliminated any confusion of the value of the work that is eligible for payment following a partial payment inspection.

CGP&H is very proud to report that we help to keep homeowner and contractor disputes to a minimum. We accomplish the prevention of typical homeowner/contractor disputes by the quality and clarity of our work specifications, combined with our processes that include a detailed Pre-Construction meeting with the homeowner and contractor both present, with our inspector reviewing all work items line by line, clarifying any homeowner or contractor questions, and reviewing program rules and responsibilities of both parties to one another. In addition, prevention of disputes is facilitated by tight construction controls and the inspector's monitoring throughout the entire rehabilitation process, addressing potential problems before they escalate. However, there will still be occasional disputes with the contractor that is selected by the homeowner and then approved by us. Sometimes it is the homeowner that is not satisfied with certain aspects of the contractor's job performance, cleanliness, timeliness, manners, work product, etc., and sometimes it is CGP&H's inspectors who are not satisfied with the actual quality of the contractor's work. If the contractor ever initiates a dispute, it is generally due to either refusal by the homeowner or inspector to make payment, or very occasionally due to lack of access or poor treatment of workers by a program participant. In any circumstance, our highly trained, patient, and skilled inspectors and management team will intervene when required to quickly resolve the matter in a way that is fair to all parties, respectful, and fact based. In addition, there has never been a finding against either CGP&H or against one of our municipal clients throughout all these years and cases. CGP&H always maintains our high standards, even during delicate and difficult occasions when disputes arise.

Case Close-Out:

The case close-out phase begins with the contractor providing a signed Release of Liens to the homeowner as well as all applicable material and equipment warranties. That is followed by the filing of the approved municipal permits, receipt of all certificates of approval(s) and the approval of the final payment, all to be placed in the case file. The case manager then sends the homeowner a case closeout letter explaining the warranty period, importance of program documents for personal record keeping, explaining the homeowner's responsibility to continue to maintain the home, providing the homeowner with a home maintenance checklist as guidance, thanking the homeowner for program participation, encouraging him/her to recommend the program to other households in the community, and when applicable reminding the homeowner of the affordable housing rental requirements listed in the program lien documents and deed restriction.

CGP&H establishes and maintains complete files on each assisted home to verify eligibility and to document the bidding, legal documents and completion of rehabilitation activities. Completed case files are transferred to the municipality and organized in a user-friendly manner for the municipality's permanent records and future reference if ever needed. We are also very proud that CGP&H has consistently received accolades from our municipal clients, state and federal representatives alike for our detailed, complete and well-organized case files. Upon request, we are happy to provide sample case files for review.

KNOWLEDGE OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING REGULATIONS

There is no Administrative Agent in the state of New Jersey with more knowledge of New Jersey Affordable Housing regulations than CGP&H. Our president, Randall Gottesman, has been practicing both before and during COAH's coming into existence in the mid-1980s, and ever since, has dedicated much of his career towards being expert in all the requirements, its implications to municipalities, and how to most cost-effectively help our clients comply with all of the rules and regulations. Mr. Gottesman is a founding member of a professional association called the Affordable Housing Professionals of New Jersey (AHPNJ) and served on its board since its inception in 2006, having served three of those years as its President. CGP&H senior staff have always taken an active role in AHPNJ, including participating in important formative committees such as the policy committee and education committee. Randall Gottesman built and developed an exceptional team of affordable housing experts at CGP&H over 30 years, establishing CGP&H as an industry leader in affordable housing implementation.

In fact, in 2006, CGP&H was so highly recognized for its expertise in this area that it was awarded a competitive contract to make a companion guide to the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls (UHAC), which CGP&H prepared for the state, and was ultimately entitled, Understanding UHAC. For close to 20 years, Understanding UHAC was considered a valuable reference tool for those in the industry. In 2025 the UHAC regulations are undergoing significant revisions, and CGP&H has remained highly engaged with various stakeholders throughout the state in navigating these new rules. Senior staff, such as Vice President Megan York, continue to lead panels in webinars and conferences relating to the new UHAC regulations, providing expert guidance particularly in the area of administrative agent services. As these new regulations are taking shape, CGP&H is working tirelessly to maintain our exceptionally high standards of affordable housing expertise.

CGP&H is committed to maintaining a well-trained staff, providing our team members with educational opportunities including AHPNJ's certification program and other educational workshops. CGP&H senior staff members have been on the AHPNJ Education Committee for many years, and have helped conceptualize, review and edit much of the curriculum created for AHPNJ's certification program over the years.

Our staff has completed affordable housing training programs offered by the state of New Jersey, including Module I, Module II Records Management, Module III Ethics, Module IV Qualifying Households, CTM Project/Unit Monitoring and CTM Trust Fund Monitoring.

Our staff has also completed all of the training programs offered to date by the Affordable Housing Professionals of New Jersey (AHPNJ), including Introduction to Affordable Housing for NJ Municipalities, Fair Housing, Qualifying for Affordable Housing, Ethics for Affordable Housing, Community Placement of Affordable Housing Units, and Records Management.

Among many others in the company, Vice President Corinne Markulin who will oversee the day-to-day operations of the housing rehabilitation program has completed the Affordable Housing Professionals of New Jersey Certification program.

On occasion, there are secondary or supplemental funding sources available to assist a unit get fully up to code in cases where the program's funding limits and the program participant's ability to provide their own funding is insufficient. CGP&H will r initial research to determine if partnering source is an option for the particular case, and if so, then coordinate with secondary funding source.	$400 flat fee per case for initial research and coordination of partnering funds
If during or after the completion of a housing rehabilitation case there are contract disputes, warranty claims or other kinds of disputes causing the Municipality to request mediation or intervention, CGP&H will only proceed upon written authorization from the municipality. When a program participant or contractor contacts CGP&H directly, CGP&H will attempt to resolve it expediently, prior to seeking written authorization from the municipality.	$400 flat fee per case for warranty claims or $750 flat fee per case for contract disputes.
Cases that require more than one bid opening (due to non-receipt of a qualified bid, contractor replacement or specialty contractor need on portion of rehab work) and/or more than one loan closing and related documents preparation; CGP&H will proceed with a re-bid process which includes re-sending updated bid notice and bid packages, additional bid opening, and review of bids received and/or each additional set of loan closing documents and/or additional loan closing.	$525 per case for re-bid process and $525 per case for each additional needed loan closing and/or additional loan closing documents.

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

This AGREEMENT is entered into on this 12th day of June, 1997 between Pike Run II, L.L.C. owner of the properties designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "Owner" and the HOUSING AUTHORITY OF TOWNSHIP OF MONTGOMERY (referred to as the "Housing Authority,") which Housing Authority is an instrumentality of the Township of Montgomery (referred to as the ""Municipality") both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the Affordable Housing Unit(s) described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of thirty (30) years and shall expire thirty (30) years from the date of the first rental of an Affordable Housing Unit by either a Low Income Household or by a Moderate Income Household.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Fair Housing Act, (P.L. 1985 c. 222) hereinafter the "Act," the Affordable Housing Units described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or an attached EXHIBIT A of this Agreement have been designated as low and moderate income rental housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Act, to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act, and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such Affordable Housing Units remain affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least six years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the herein described Affordable Housing Units remain affordable to low and moderate income eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to insure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises, its heirs and assigns as their interests may appear, and notify all future purchasers and renters of the Affordable Housing Unit that the Affordable Housing Units are encumbered with affordability controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the rental of the Affordable Housing Units to low and moderate income eligible households at a maximum adjusted rent determined by the Housing Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

All terms and phrases used in this Affordable Housing Agreement shall have the same meanings as set forth in and shall be interpreted to fulfill the intent and purpose of the Affordable Housing Ordinance of the Township of Montgomery (Chapter XV of the Code of the Township of Montgomery, adopted _____ 1997) hereinafter referred to as the "Ordinance", as such Ordinance existed at the time that this Affordable Housing Agreement is executed by the Housing Authority. Changes, amendments or revisions to the Ordinance shall not affect, amend or alter this Affordable Housing Agreement, and such Affordable Housing Agreement shall continue to be interpreted and applied in accordance with the Ordinance as it existed on the date of execution of this Affordable Housing Agreement by the Housing Authority.

II. PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This Affordable Housing Agreement applies to the Owner's interest in the Two hundred ten (210) Affordable Housing Units more particularly described in the property description attached as Exhibit A.

III. TERM OF RESTRICTION

A. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall commence on the date of the first rental of an Affordable Housing Unit by either a Low Income Household or Moderate Income Household.

B. Subject to the "Recapture" provisions of the Ordinance, the terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall terminate thirty (30) years after the commencement date (provided however, any Affordable Housing Unit which is occupied by an income eligible household upon the expiration of the thirty (30) year period shall remain restricted until that Affordable housing Unit is vacated).

C. Upon termination of restrictions as they apply to each Affordable Housing Unit within the Property described in Exhibit A, the Housing Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that such Affordable Housing Unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

IV. RESTRICTIONS

A. The Owner of a rental Affordable Housing Unit shall not rent the Affordable Housing Unit for rent that is greater than the maximum rental charge allowed by the Ordinance and annual rental charge increases allowed by the Ordinance. Prior to the rental or re-rental of an Affordable Housing Unit(s), the Housing Authority shall determine the maximum rent to be charged for said Unit(s). Rental change increases shall be effective as of the lease anniversary date and shall remain in effect for at least a one year period.

B. The Owner shall not rent the Affordable Housing Unit other than to a Low Income Renter or Moderate Income Renter who is determined to be a "certified household" by the Housing Authority pursuant to the Ordinance.

C. A "Certified Household" determination shall be valid for One Hundred Twenty (120) Days and shall thereafter expire unless a valid Lease has been executed, provided:

(1) If a valid Lease has been executed within the One Hundred Twenty (120) Day time period, the certification shall remain valid unless the Lease is ruled invalid and no occupancy of the affordable housing unit has occurred; and

(2) Upon the written request of the "Certified Household", the certification may be reviewed in writing by the Housing Authority, at its discretion, for an additional period not exceeding One Hundred Twenty (120) Days.

D. The Owner of the Affordable Housing Units shall sell the unit(s) in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93-9) and the Ordinance to ensure that the Affordable Housing Units remain affordable for rental and occupation by Low Income Households and Moderate Income Households throughout the duration of this Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the recording office of the county in which the Affordable Housing Unit(s) are located. The Agreement shall be recorded prior to the date of the first rental of an Affordable Housing Unit by either a Low Income Household or Moderate Income Household.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one Affordable Housing Unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each Affordable Housing Unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or EXHIBIT A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the Affordable Housing Unit as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS of the Agreement. The Deed of each and every individual Affordable Housing Unit governed by such a single Agreement shall contain the recording information of the Agreement applicable to such Affordable Housing Unit.

C. This Agreement shall be executed by the Owner or the then current title holder of record of the property upon which the Affordable Housing Units are to be situated prior to its recording.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

A. All Deeds of Conveyance and Lease Agreements from all Owners to Purchasers and Certified Renters of Affordable Housing Units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place:

"The Owner's/tenant's right, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale, rental or re-rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in an AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT which has been filed in the Office of the Clerk of Somerset County in Misc. Book ____ at Page ____ on _____, 1997 and is on file with the Montgomery Township Municipal Clerk."

Any Master Deed which includes an Affordable Housing Unit(s) shall also reference the Affordable Unit(s) and the Affordable Housing Agreement and any variation in services, fees or other terms of the Master Deed that differentiate the Affordable Unit(s) from all other unit(s) covered in the Master Deed.

B. The owner of Affordable Housing Units shall provide a Disclosure Statement to all renters of Affordable Housing Units prior to the execution of any contract of sale or lease, and such Disclosure Statement shall be included in any applicable Public Offering Statement. A sample copy of the Disclosure Statement is attached hereto as EXHIBIT B. All owners or renters of Affordable Housing Units shall provide copies of the Disclosure Statement to subsequent renters prior to the execution of leases with such renters.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each Affordable Housing Unit affected hereby, and shall bind all Purchasers, Owners and Renters of Affordable Housing Units, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein. Ownership or rental of an Affordable Housing Unit shall be deemed to be an acceptance and ratification of all of the applicable provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

VIII. OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement, the Owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. Affordable Housing Units designated as rental units shall at all times remain the primary residence of the renter and shall not be sublet to any party whether or not that party is qualified as a Low Income Renter or Moderate Income Renter without prior written approval from the Housing Authority.

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Housing Unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that the expenditures for any alteration that allows an Affordable Housing Unit to be rented to a larger household size because of an increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered by the Housing Authority for recalculation of rent. Owners must obtain prior approval from the Housing Authority for such alteration to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing Unit shall keep the Affordable Housing Unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Housing Units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments or levies, both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the same become due and before penalties are imposed. This shall include but not be limited to any and all assessments by a Homeowner's Association.

E. Tenants of Affordable Housing Units shall be responsible for compliance with the Homeowners Association Documents of the Pike Run Master Association, Inc., and for any fines, penalties or changes assessed against tenants pursuant thereto.

F. All renters of Affordable Housing Units shall be subject to the terms, restrictions and provisions of the Master Deed, the Ordinance, this Agreement and/or the rules and regulations of the Housing Authority, which shall be considered a material element of each renter's Lease. Violation of any such terms, restrictions and provisions shall be cause for eviction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1d and/or 2A:18-61.1e. In the event of violation by the owner or renter of any of the terms or restrictions of any Master Deed, the Ordinance, this Agreement or the Rules and Regulations of the Housing Authority, the Owner of said unit(s) shall be responsible for curation of said violation and payment of all penalties in accordance with applicable law and to the reasonable satisfaction of any and all governmental entities. The Owner shall further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Municipality for any and all damages caused by the violation, including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, or penalties which may be imposed upon the Municipality. All renters of Affordable Units shall indemnify and hold harmless Owner for any and all expenses of curation, penalties, damages, judgments and/or fines imposed by Owner as a result of renters violations.

G. Owners of Affordable Housing Units shall notify the Housing Authority in writing sixty (60) days prior to a rental vacancy. Owners shall not lease or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing Unit without the prior written approval of the Housing Authority.

H. An Owner shall request referrals of Certified Households from the pre-screened established referral list maintained by the Housing Authority.

I. If the Housing Authority does not refer a certified household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Rental Vacancy, the Owner may rent the property to an eligible household not referred by the Housing Authority. The proposed renter must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income information for verification to the Housing Authority for written certification as an eligible rental transaction. This shall not limit Owners right to petition COAH for relief pursuant to the Ordinance.

J. The Owner shall have responsibility for forwarding copies of all documents filed with the applicable county recording office to the Housing Authority after they have been signed, dated and recorded.

K. The Owner may be obligated to pay a service fee to the Housing Authority for initial occupancy and at the time of each new rental occupancy.

L. In the event of issuance by the Housing Authority of a notice of violation to an owner or renter, said owner or renter, its heirs and assigns shall cure said violation(s) to the reasonable satisfaction of the Housing Authority.

IX. FORECLOSURE

A. This agreement shall not be terminated in the event of judgment of Foreclosure on properties that include Affordable Housing Units that are designated as rental units unless the rental unit is contained within an owner-occupied property containing four or less units.

B. If the rental unit is contained within an owner-occupied property containing four or less units, the terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinate only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit.

C. Upon a judgment of Foreclosure of an owner-occupied unit containing an Affordable Housing Unit, the Housing Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that such Affordable Housing Unit has been forever released from the restrictions of the Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor of mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing Unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Housing Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Housing Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Housing Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to recoupment of any funds from a rental in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Housing Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner. Upon such assignment, the Housing Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner.

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the rents of designated Affordable Housing Units remain affordable to Low Income Households and Moderate Income Households as defined herein.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

This AGREEMENT is entered into on this 1st day of August 2002 between TOWN HOMES AT MONTGOMERY, L.L.C., owner of the properties designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "OWNER", and The HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONTGOMERY, which is an instrumentality of the Township of Montgomery hereafter the "AUTHORITY", both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the Affordable Housing units described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of at least thirty (30) years beginning on the date of the first sale of an Affordable For Sale unit and ending at the first non-exempt transfer of title occurring more than thirty (30) years thereafter, unless extended by municipal resolution as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L.1985, c.222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter the "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing units described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or in attached Exhibit A of this Agreement have been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing units remain affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income-eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

SEE EXHIBIT A

III. TERM OF RESTRICTIONS

A. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall begin on the later of the date a Certificate of Occupancy is issued or the date on which closing and transfer of title takes place for initial ownership.

B. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of either of the following events:

1 At the first non-exempt sale after thirty (30) years from the beginning date established pursuant to Paragraph A above; or

2. The date upon which the event set forth in Section IX FORECLOSURE herein shall occur.

C. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement may be extended by municipal resolution as provided for in N.J.A.C. 5:92.1 et seq. Such municipal resolution shall provide for a period of extended restrictions and shall be effective upon filing with the Council and the Authority. The municipal resolution shall specify the extended time period by providing for a revised ending date. An amendment to the Affordable Housing Agreement shall be filed with the recording office of the county in which the Affordable Housing unit or units is/are located.

D. At the first non-exempt title transaction after the established ending date, the Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that the Affordable Housing unit has been released from the restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

IV. RESTRICTIONS

A. The Owner of an owner-occupied Affordable Housing unit for sale shall not sell the unit at a Resale Price greater than an established Base Price plus the allowable percentage of increase as determined by the Index applicable to the municipality in which the unit is located. However, in no event shall the maximum allowable price established by the Authority be lower than the last recorded purchase price.

B. The Owner shall not sell the Affordable Housing unit to anyone other than a Purchaser who has been certified utilizing the income verification procedures established by the Authority to determine qualified Low and Moderate Income-Eligible Households.

C. An Owner wishing to enter a transaction that will terminate controls as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS shall be obligated to provide a Notice of Intent to Sell to the Authority and the Council. An option to buy the unit at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the Index shall be made available to the Municipality, the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell. The option to buy shall be by certified mail and shall be effective on the date of mailing to the Owner.

1. If the option to buy is not exercised within ninety (90) days pursuant to Paragraph C above, the Owner may elect to sell the unit to a certified income-eligible household at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the Index, provided the unit continues to be restricted by an Affordable Housing Agreement and a Repayment Lien for a period of up to thirty (30) years.

2. Alternately, the Owner may also elect to sell to any purchaser at a fair market price. In this event, the Owner shall be obligated to pay the municipality 95% of the Price Differential generated at the time of closing and transfer of title of the Affordable Housing unit after restrictions have ended as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

3. If the Owner does not sell the unit within one (1) year of the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell, the option to buy shall be restored to the municipality and subsequently to the Department, the Agency or a Non-Profit approved by the Council. The Owner shall then be required to submit a new Notice of Intent to Sell the affordable unit to the Authority.

D. The Affordable Housing unit shall be sold in accordance with all rules, regulations, and requirements duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), the intent of which is to ensure that the Affordable Housing unit remains affordable to and occupied by Low and Moderate Income-Eligible Households throughout that duration of the Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the recording office of the County of Somerset. The Agreement shall be filed no earlier than the recording of an applicable Master Deed and no later than the closing of the initial sale.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one Affordable Housing unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each Affordable Housing unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or Exhibit A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the unit as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS of the Agreement.

C. A Repayment Mortgage and a Repayment Note shall be executed between the Owner and Township of Montgomery at the time of closing and transfer of title to any purchaser of an Affordable Housing unit. The Repayment Mortgage shall provide for the repayment of 95% of the Price Differential at the first non-exempt transfer of title after the ending date of restrictions as specified in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS. The Repayment Mortgage shall be recorded with the records office of the County of Somerset.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

All Deeds of Conveyance and Contracts to Purchase from owners to Certified Purchasers of Affordable housing units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place:

"The Owner's right, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale and rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in the AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT dated _____ which was filed in the Office of the Clerk of Somerset County in Misc. Book _____ at Page _____ on _____ and is also on file with the Housing Authority of the Township of Montgomery."

Any Master Deed that includes an affordable unit shall also reference the affordable unit and the Affordable Housing Agreement and any variation in services, fees, or other terms of the Master Deed that differentiates the affordable unit from all other units covered in the Master Deed.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each Affordable Housing unit affected hereby, and shall bind all Purchasers and Owners of each Affordable Housing unit, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein.

VIII. OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. Affordable Housing units shall at all times remain the Primary Residence of the Owner. The Owner shall not rent any Affordable Housing unit to any party whether or not that party qualifies as a Low or Moderate income household without prior written approval from the Authority .

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Housing unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be sold to a larger household size because of increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of Base Price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing unit shall keep the Affordable Housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when they become due.

E. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income Information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher,. wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale.

I. The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5 :92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX. FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit. Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale. For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of: (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement. The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor.

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds. This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale. The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor. Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess.

No part of the excess funds, however, shall be part of the defaulting mortgagor's equity.

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price.

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor.

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner. Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner.

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein.

XIII. NOTICES

All notices required herein shall be sent by certified mail return receipt requested as follows:

To the Owner:

At the address of the Property stated in SECTION II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereof.

To the Authority:

Or such other address that the Authority, Owner, or municipality may subsequently designate in writing and mail to the other party.

XIV. SUPERIORITY OF AGREEMENT

Owner warrants that no other Agreement with provisions contradictory or, or in opposition to, the provisions hereof has been or will be executed, and that, in any event, the requirements of this Agreement are paramount and controlling as to the rights and obligations between and among the Owner, the Authority, and their respective successors.

XV. SEVERABILITY

It is the intention of all parties that the provisions of this instrument are severable so that if any provisions, conditions, covenants or restrictions thereof shall be invalid or void under any applicable federal, state or local law, the remainder shall be unaffected thereby.

In the event that any provision, condition, covenant or restriction hereof is at the time of recording of this instrument, void, voidable or unenforceable as being contrary to any applicable federal, state or local law, both parties, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming by, through or under them covenant and agree that any future amendments or supplements to the said laws having the effect of removing said invalidity, voidability or unenforceability, shall be deemed to apply retrospectively to this instrument thereby operating to validate the provisions of this instrument which otherwise might be invalid and it is covenanted and agreed that any such amendments and supplements to the said laws shall have the effect herein described as fully as if they had been in effect at the time of the execution of this instrument.

XVI. CONTROLLING LAW

XVII. OWNER'S CERTIFICATION

The Owner certifies that all information provided in order to qualify as the owner of the property or to purchase the property is true and correct as of the date of the signing of this Agreement.

XVIII. AGREEMENT

A. The Owner and the Authority hereby agree that all Affordable Housing units described herein shall be marketed, sold, and occupied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Neither the Owner, nor the Authority, shall amend or alter the provisions of this Agreement without first obtaining the approval of the other party except as described in Section III, Paragraph C, TERM OF RESTRICTIONS. Any such approved amendments or modifications of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall contain proof of approval from the other party and shall not be effective unless and until recorded with the County Clerk of the County of Somerset.

EXHIBIT A

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FOR AFFORDABLE UNITS MCKINLEY COMMONS CONDOMINIUM

The home which you are considering purchasing is an "Affordable Unit" as discussed in instruments entitled "The First Amendment to the Public Offering Statement of Montgomery Hills" and the "Master Deed for McKinley Commons Condominium", collectively referred to as the "Affordable Housing Documents" for the development know as "McKinley Commons". The "Affordable Housing Documents" were prepared for Town Homes at Montgomery L.L.C. in accordance with the requirements of Township of Montgomery and were a requirement of the Township of Montgomery in its approval of the development known as "Montgomery Hills". A complete reading of the "Affordable Housing Documents" is necessary to fully understand and be aware of all the restrictions contained in the documents which affect the home you are considering purchasing. By way of a brief summary, the following restrictions are contained in the "Affordable Housing Documents":

1. Purchasers of these "Affordable Units" are limited to "low" and "moderate' income families. These "Affordable Units" may be occupied only as permitted by the Township of Montgomery and the duly designated Housing Authority of the Township. The restrictions on the occupancy of the "Affordable Units" shall continue for the period of time noted in the "Affordable Housing Documents", and apply to the initial sale of the unit and any subsequent resale;

2. These "Affordable Units" may not be resold at a price greater than the initial sales price, plus a percentage increase based on the annual "Median Regional Income" figures issued by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for the Somerset-Hunterdon-Middlesex County region as well as in consideration of some other factors as specified in the "Affordable Housing Ordinance of the Township of Montgomery";

3. Owners of the "Affordable Units" may add amenities or improvements to the "Affordable Units", but the cost of such amenities or improvements must have been previously approved by the Montgomery Township Housing Authority or its designee, if they are to be included in any resale price;

4. These "Affordable Units" shall pay Master Association and Condominium Association assessments. Owners of these "Affordable Units" have the very same rights, privileges, duties and obligations as the owners of "Market Rate Units" within the same Master Association. The owners of these "Affordable Units" are entitled to participate fully in the affairs of the Master Association on an equal basis with any other member of the Master Association; and

5. The terms, restrictions, provisions and covenants of the "Affordable Housing Documents", including the provisions of the Master Deed referring to and incorporating the "Affordable Housing Documents", shall expire and terminate no earlier than the time period specified in the "Affordable Housing Documents", i.e., thirty (30) years from the date of the first purchase of an "Affordable Unit", and shall only expire and terminate in accordance with Section 15-110, "Recapture of Affordable Units", in the Affordable Housing Ordinance of the Township of Montgomery.

The above are the limitations and restrictions which most greatly affect the "Affordable Units" in the development know as "McKinley Commons"; however, a full understanding of the "Affordable Housing Documents" requires a thorough and complete reading of the documents.

Statement of Understanding

I/we have read the contents of this Disclosure Statement and understand same. I/we have been instructed that a thorough reading of the "Affordable Housing Documents" in their entirety is necessary to understand their requirements and limitations. I/we have further been instructed to seek the assistance and advise of an attorney in reviewing the "Affordable Housing Documents".

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

This AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into this 1st day of August 2002, between McKinley Court, L.L.C., the owner of the properties designated in Section II, PROPERTY DESCRIPTION ("Owner"), and the HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONTGOMERY ("Authority"), which Housing Authority is an instrumentality of the Township of Montgomery ("Township"), both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the Affordable Housing Unit(s) described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of thirty (30) years and shall expire thirty (30) years from the date of the first rental of an Affordable Housing Unit by either a Low Income Household or a Moderate Income Household.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Fair Housing Act, (P.L. 1985 c.222) ("Act"), the Affordable Housing Units ("Affordable Units") described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or an attached EXHIBIT A of this Agreement, have been designated as low and moderate income rental housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Act to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such Affordable Housing Units remain affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least six (6) years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing ("Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the herein described Affordable Units remain affordable for rental by low and moderate income eligible households, with certain units being further restricted to rental by senior citizen households, for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to insure that affordability controls are contained directly in the property Deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property Deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises, its heirs and assigns as their interests may appear, and notify all future purchasers and renters of an Affordable Unit that all Affordable Units are encumbered with affordable controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the rental of Affordable Units to low and moderate income eligible households and to rental by senior citizen households, at a maximum adjusted rent determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

All terms and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the same meanings as set forth in and shall be interpreted to fulfill the intent and purpose of the Affordable Housing Ordinance of the Township of Montgomery (Chapter XV of the code of the Township of Montgomery) ("Ordinance"). Any definition pertaining to affordable housing not contained in the Ordinance shall be intended to have the meaning as defined in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act (N.J.S.A. 52:270-301, et seq.) or the "Procedural Rules of the New Jersey Council on Affordable Housing" (N.J.A.C. 5:91) or the "Substantive Rules of the New Jersey Council on Affordable Housing" (N.J.A.C. 5:92 or N.J.A.C. 5:93, as appropriate).

II. PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This Agreement applies to the Owner's interest in the sixty (60) Affordable Units located in the "Montgomery Hills" development and being known as "McKinley Commons Condominium" and more particularly described in the property description attached as Exhibit A. Owner acknowledges that occupancy of these Affordable Units shall be limited to rental by low and moderate income-eligible Senior Citizen Households, defined in the Ordinance as household(s) with at least one (1) person fifty-five (55) years of age or older and with no person less than nineteen (19) years of age, provided that visitors less than nineteen (19) years of age are permitted for no more than eight (8) weeks during any twelve (12) month time period.

III. TERM OF RESTRICTION

A. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Agreement shall begin on the date of the first rental of an Affordable Unit by either a Low Income Household, Moderate Income Household or Senior Citizen Household.

B. Subject to the "Recapture" provisions of this ordinance, the terms, restrictions and covenants of this Agreement shall terminate thirty (30) years after the commencement date (provided, however, any Affordable Unit occupied by an income-eligible house upon the expiration of the thirty-year period shall remain restricted until that Affordable Unit is vacated).

C. Upon termination of restrictions as they apply to each Affordable Unit(s) within the property described in Exhibit A, the Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that such Affordable Unit(s) has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement.

IV. RESTRICTIONS

A. The Owner of a rental Affordable Unit shall not rent the Affordable Unit for rent that is greater than the maximum rental charge allowed by the Ordinance and annual rental charge increases allowed by the Ordinance. Prior to the rental or re-rental of an Affordable Unit, the Authority shall determine the maximum rent to be charged for said Unit. Rental charge increases shall be effective as of the Lease anniversary date and shall remain in effect for at least a one (1) year period.

B. The Owner shall not rent an Affordable Unit to other than a Low Income Renter or Moderate Income Renter ("Renter") who is determined to be a "Certified Household" by the Housing Authority pursuant to the Ordinance.

C. A "Certified Household" determination shall be valid for One Hundred Twenty (120) Days and shall thereafter expire unless a valid Lease has been executed, provided:

(1) If a valid Lease has been executed within the One Hundred Twenty (120) Day time period, the certification shall remain valid unless the Lease is ruled invalid and no occupancy of the Affordable Unit has occurred; and

(2) Upon the written request of a "Certified Household", the certification may be renewed in writing by the authority, at its discretion, for no more than an additional One Hundred Twenty (120) Days.

D. The Owner of an Affordable Unit shall sell the Unit in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93-9) and the Ordinance to ensure that the Affordable Unit shall remain affordable for rental and occupation by Certified Households throughout the duration of this Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the Somerset County Clerk. The Agreement shall be recorded prior to the date of the first rental of an Affordable Unit by either a Low Income Household, Moderate Income Household or Senior Citizen Household.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one Affordable Unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each Affordable Unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II, PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or EXHIBIT A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the Affordable Unit as described in Section III, TERM OF RESTRICTIONS of the Agreement. The Deed of each and every individual Affordable Unit governed by such a single Agreement shall contain the recording information of the Agreement applicable to such Affordable Unit.

C. This Agreement shall be executed by the Owner or the then current title holder of record of the Property upon which the Affordable Units are to be situated prior to its recording.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

A. All Deeds of Conveyance and Contracts to Purchase from all Owners to Purchasers of Affordable Units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place:

"The Owner's right, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale, and rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in an AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT which has been filed in the Office of the Clerk of Somerset County in Misc. Book _____ at Page _____ on _____, 2002 and is on file with the Montgomery Township Municipal Clerk."

Any Master Deed which includes Affordable Unit(s) shall also reference the Affordable Units(s) and this Agreement and any variation in services, fees or other terms of the Master Deed that differentiate the Affordable Unit(s) from all other unit(s) covered in the Master Deed.

B. The Owner of Affordable Units shall provide a Disclosure Statement to all Renters of Affordable Units prior to the execution of any Lease, and such Disclosure Statement shall be included in any applicable Public Offering Statement. A sample copy of the Disclosure Statement is attached hereto as Exhibit B. All Owners of Affordable Units shall provide copies of the Disclosure Statement to subsequent Renters prior to the execution of Leases with such Renters.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each Affordable Unit affected hereby, and shall bind all Purchasers, Owners and Renters of Affordable Units, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein. Ownership or rental of an Affordable Unit shall be deemed to be an acceptance and ratification of all of the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

VIII. OWNER/RENTER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement, the Owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. The Affordable Unit shall at all times remain the primary residence of the Renter. The Owner shall not rent, nor the Renter sublet, any Affordable Unit to any party whether or not that party is qualified as a Low or Moderate Income Household (or Senior Citizen Household, where applicable) without prior written approval from the Authority.

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that the expenditures for any alterations that allows an Affordable Unit to be rented to a larger household size because of an increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered by the Authority for a recalculation of rent. Owners must obtain prior approval from the Authority for such alteration to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Unit shall keep the Affordable Unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments or levies, both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the same becomes due and before penalties are imposed. This shall include, but not be limited to, any and all assessments by the Montgomery Hills Master Association and the McKinley Commons Condominium Association.

E. Owners and Renters of Affordable Units shall be responsible for compliance with the documents governing the McKinley Commons Condominium Association and the Montgomery Hills Master Association and for fines, penalties or changes assessed against said Renters pursuant thereto.

F. Owners and Renters of Affordable Units shall be subject to the terms, restrictions and provisions of the Master Deed, the Ordinance, this Agreement and/or the rules and regulations of the Authority, which shall be considered a material element of each Renter's Lease. Violation of any such terms, restrictions and provisions shall be cause for eviction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1d and/or 2A:18-61.1e. In the event of violation by the Owner or Renter of any of the terms or restrictions of any Master Deed, the Ordinance, this Agreement or the Rules and Regulations of the Authority, the Owner of said Unit(s) shall be responsible for curation of said violation and payment of all penalties in accordance with applicable law and to the reasonable satisfaction of any and all government entities. The Owner shall further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Township and Authority for any and all damages caused by the violation and expenses of curation, including, but not limited to, judgments, fines or penalties which may be imposed upon the Township or Authority.

G. Owners of Affordable Units shall notify the Authority in writing ninety (90) days prior to a rental vacancy. Owners shall not lease or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

H. An Owner shall request referrals of Certified Households from the pre-screened established referral list maintained by the Authority.

I. If the Authority does not refer a Certified Household within sixty (60) days of the notice of rental vacancy, the Owner may rent the property to an eligible household not referred by the Authority. The proposed Renter must complete all required household eligibility forms and submit gross annual income information (and, where necessary, proof of age) for verification by the Authority and issuance of written certification as an eligible rental transaction. This shall not limit Owner's right to petition COAH for relief pursuant to the Ordinance.

J. The Owner shall have responsibility for forwarding copies of all documents filed with the applicable county recording office to the Authority after they have been signed, dated and recorded.

K. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a service fee to the Authority at the time of initial purchase of a unit, initial occupancy and at the time of each new rental occupancy.

L. In the event of issuance by the Authority of a notice of violation to an Owner or Renter, said Owner or its heirs and assigns shall cure said violation(s) to the reasonable satisfaction of the Authority.

M. The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage and/or any Authority approved second mortgages, to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

IX. FORECLOSURE

A. This Agreement shall not be terminated in the event of Judgement of Foreclosure on Properties that include Affordable Housing Units that are designated as rental units unless the rental unit is located within an owner-occupied property containing four or less units.

B. If the rental unit is located within an owner-occupied property containing four or less units, the terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinate only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing Unit.

C. Upon a Judgment of Foreclosure of an owner-occupied unit containing an affordable rental housing unit, the Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that such Affordable Housing Unit has been forever released from the restrictions of the Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor of mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing Unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner or Renter, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provisions of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner or Renter, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including, but not limited to, recoupment of any funds from a rental in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT

Prepared by:

L. Stephen Pastor, Esquire

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

This AGREEMENT is entered into on this 1st day of August 2002 between Calton Homes, Inc., owner of the properties designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "OWNER", and hereafter "AUTHORITY", both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the Affordable Housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of at least thirty (30) years beginning on September 15, 2002 and ending at the first non-exempt transfer of title after thirty (30) years unless extended by municipal resolution as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L.1985, c.222) hereinafter "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit (units) described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or an attached Exhibit A of this Agreement has (have) been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing units (unit) remain(s) affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income-eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

"Affordable Housing" shall mean residential units that have been restricted for occupancy by Households whose total Gross Annual Income is measured at less than 80% of the median income level established by an authorized income guideline for geographic region and family size.

The Owner shall have marketed the unit for 90 days after a Notice of Intent to Sell has been received by the Authority and the Authority shall have 30 days thereafter to approve a Hardship Waiver. The Hardship Waiver shall permit a low income unit to be sold to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to be sold to a household whose income is at 80% or above the applicable median income guide. "Owner" shall mean the title holder of record as same is reflected in the most recently dated and recorded deed for the particular Affordable Housing unit. For purposes of the initial sales or rentals of any Affordable Housing unit, Owner shall include the developer/owner of such Affordable Housing units. "Price Differential" shall mean the total amount of the restricted sales price that exceeds the maximum restricted resale price as calculated by the Index after reasonable real estate broker fees have been deducted. "Primary Residence" shall mean the unit wherein a Certified Household maintains continuing residence for no less than nine months of each calendar year.

"Purchaser" shall mean a Certified Household who has signed an agreement to purchase an Affordable Housing unit subject to a mortgage commitment and closing.

"Repayment" shall mean the Owner's obligation to the municipality for payment of 95% of the price differential between the maximum allowable resale price and the fair market selling price which has accrued to the Affordable unit during the restricted period of resale at the first non-exempt sale of the property after restrictions have ended as specified in the Affordable Housing Agreement.

"Repayment Mortgage" shall mean the second mortgage document signed by the Owner that is given to the municipality as security for the payment due under the Repayment Note.

"Repayment Note" shall mean the second mortgage note signed by the owner that requires the repayment to the municipality of 95% of the price differential which has accrued to the low or moderate income unit during the period of resale controls at the first non-exempt sale of the property after restrictions have ended as specified in the Affordable Housing Agreement.

II. PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This agreement applies to the Owner's interest in the real property commonly known as:

Block _____ Lot _____ Municipality: Montgomery

County: Somerset # of Bedrooms

Complete Street Address & Unit #

City: Montgomery, State: New Jersey; Zip

If additional Affordable Housing units are to be covered by this Agreement, a description of each additional unit is attached as Exhibit A and is incorporated herein.

III. TERM OF RESTRICTIONS

A. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall begin on the later of the date a Certificate of Occupancy is issued or the date on which closing and transfer of title takes place for initial ownership.

B. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of either of the following events:

1. At the first non-exempt sale after 10 (ten) years from the beginning date established pursuant to Paragraph A above for units located in municipalities receiving State Aid pursuant to P.L.1978, L.14 (N.J.S.A. 52:27D-178 et seq.) that exhibit one of the characteristics delineated in N.J.A.C. 5:92-5.3(b); or at the first non-exempt sale after thirty (30) years from the beginning date established pursuant to Paragraph A above for units located in all other municipalities; or

2. The date upon which the event set forth in Section IX FORECLOSURE herein shall occur.

C. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement may be extended by municipal resolution as provided for in N.J.A.C. 5:92.1 et seq. Such municipal resolution shall provide for a period of extended restrictions and shall be effective upon filing with the Council and the Authority. The municipal resolution shall specify the extended time period by providing for a revised ending date. An amendment to the Affordable Housing Agreement shall be filed with the recording office of the county in which the Affordable Housing unit or units is/are located.

D. At the first non-exempt title transaction after the established ending date, the Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that the Affordable Housing unit has been released from the restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

IV. RESTRICTIONS

A. The Owner of an owner-occupied Affordable Housing unit for sale shall not sell the unit at a Resale Price greater than an established Base Price plus the allowable percentage of increase as determined by the Index applicable to the municipality in which the unit is located. However, in no event shall the maximum allowable price established by the authority be lower than the last recorded purchase price.

B. The Owner shall not sell the Affordable Housing unit to anyone other than a Purchaser who has been certified utilizing the income verification procedures established by the Authority to determine qualified Low and Moderate Income-Eligible Households.

C. An Owner wishing to enter a transaction that will terminate controls as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS shall be obligated to provide a Notice of Intent to Sell to the Authority and the Council. An option to buy the unit at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the Index shall be made available to the Municipality, the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell. The option to buy shall be by certified mail and shall be effective on the date of mailing to the Owner.

1. If the option to buy is not exercised within ninety (90) days pursuant to Paragraph C above, the Owner may elect to sell the unit to a certified income-eligible household at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the Index provided the unit continues to be restricted by an Affordable Housing Agreement and a Repayment Lien for a period of up to thirty (30) years.

2. Alternately, the Owner may also elect to sell to any purchaser at a fair market price. In this event, the Owner shall be obligated to pay the municipality 95% of the Price Differential generated at the time of closing and transfer of title of the Affordable Housing unit after restrictions have ended as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

3. If the Owner does not sell the unit within one (1) year of the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell, the option to buy shall be restored to the municipality and subsequently to the Department, the Agency or a Non-Profit approved by the Council. The Owner shall then be required to submit a new Notice of Intent to Sell the affordable unit to the Authority.

D. The Affordable Housing unit shall be sold in accordance with all rules, regulations, and requirements duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), the intent of which is to ensure that the Affordable Housing unit remains affordable to and occupied by Low and Moderate Income-Eligible Households throughout the duration of this Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the recording office of the county in which the Affordable Housing unit or units are located. The Agreement shall be filed no earlier than the recording of an applicable Master Deed and no later than the closing date of the initial sale.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one Affordable Housing unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each Affordable Housing unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or Exhibit A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the unit as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS of the Agreement.

C. A Repayment Mortgage and a Repayment Note shall be executed between the Owner and the municipality wherein the unit(s) is (are) located at the time of closing and transfer of title to any purchaser of an Affordable Housing unit. The Repayment Mortgage shall provide for the repayment of 95% of the Price Differential at the first non-exempt transfer of title after the ending date of restrictions as specified in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS. The Repayment Mortgage shall be recorded with the records office of the County in which the unit is located.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

All Deeds of Conveyance and Contracts to Purchase from all Owners to Certified Purchasers of Affordable Housing units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place:

"The Owner's right, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale and rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in the AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT dated _____ which was filed in the Office of the Clerk of Somerset County in Misc. Book _____ at Page _____ on _____ and is also on file with the Authority".

Any Master Deed that includes an Affordable Housing unit shall also reference the affordable unit and the Affordable Housing Agreement and any variation in services, fees, or other terms of the Master Deed that differentiates the affordable unit from all other units covered in the Master Deed.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each Affordable Housing unit affected hereby, and shall bind all Purchasers and Owners of each Affordable Housing unit, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein.

VIII. OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement, the Owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. Affordable Housing units shall at all times remain the Primary Residence of the Owner. The Owner shall not rent any Affordable Housing unit to any party whether or not that party qualifies as a Low or Moderate income household without prior written approval from the Authority.

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Housing unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be resold to a larger household size because of increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of Base Price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing unit shall keep the Affordable Housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments or levies, both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the same become due.

E. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income Information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale.

I. The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX. FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit.

Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale. For purposes of this agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement. The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor.

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds. This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale. The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor. Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale shall be responsible or liable to the Authority for any portion of this excess.

No part of the excess funds, however, shall be part of the defaulting mortgagor's equity.

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price.

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor.

Nothing shall preclude the municipality wherein the Affordable Housing unit is located from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner. Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner.

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible Households as defined herein.

XIII. NOTICES

All notices required herein shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested as follows:

To the Owner:

Owner warrants that no other Agreement with provisions contradictory of, or in opposition to, the provisions hereof has been or will be executed, and that, in any event, the requirements of this Agreement are paramount and controlling as to the rights and obligations between and among the Owner, the Authority, and their respective successors.

XV. SEVERABILITY

It is the intention of all parties that the provisions of this instrument are severable so that if any provisions, conditions, covenants or restrictions thereof shall be invalid or void under any applicable federal, state or local law, the remainder shall be unaffected thereby.

In the event that any provision, condition, covenant or restriction hereof, is at the time of recording of this instrument, void, voidable or unenforceable as being contrary to any applicable federal, state or local law, both parties, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming by, through or under them covenant and agree that any future amendments or supplements to the said laws having the effect of removing said invalidity, voidability or unenforceability, shall be deemed to apply retrospectively to this instrument thereby operating to validate the provisions of this instrument which otherwise might be invalid and it is covenanted and agreed that any such amendments and supplements to the said laws shall have the effect herein described as fully as if they had been in effect at the time of the execution of this instrument.

XVI. CONTROLLING LAW

XVII. OWNER'S CERTIFICATION

The Owner certifies that all information provided in order to qualify as the owner of the property or to purchase the property is true and correct as of the date of the signing of this Agreement.

XVIII. AGREEMENT

A. The Owner and the Authority hereby agree that all Affordable Housing units described herein shall be marketed, sold, and occupied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Neither the Owner nor the Authority shall amend or alter the provisions of this Agreement without first obtaining the approval of the other party except as described in Section III, Paragraph C, TERM OF RESTRICTION. In consideration of value received by the Borrower in connection with the Property (described below) purchased by the Borrower, the Borrower has signed a note dated _____. The Borrower promises to pay the amounts due under the Note and to abide by all promises contained in the Note.

MORTGAGE AS SECURITY

This Mortgage is given to the Authority as security for the payment due and the performance of all promises under the Note. The Borrower mortgages the real estate owned by the Borrower described as follows (referred to as the "Property"):

All of the land located in the Township of Montgomery, County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, specifically described as follows:

Street Address:

Lot No.:
Block No.:

Also more particularly described as:

Together with:

1. All buildings and other improvements that now are or will be located on the Property.

2. All fixtures, equipment and personal property that now are or will be attached to or used with the land, buildings and improvements of or on the Property.

3. All rights which the Borrower now has or will acquire with regard to the Property.

BORROWER'S ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

1. The Borrower acknowledges and understands that:

(a) Municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required under the Fair Housing Act and regulations adopted under the authority of the Act to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households of low and moderate income; and

(b) The Property which is subject to this Mortgage has been designated as housing which must remain affordable to low and moderate income households for at least thirty (30) years unless a shorter time period is authorized in accordance with rules established by any agency having jurisdiction (the "restricted period"); and

(c) To ensure that such housing, including this Property, remains affordable to low and moderate income households during the restricted period, an Affordable Housing Agreement has been executed by the Borrower that constitutes covenants running with the land with respect to the Property and the Municipality has adopted procedures and restrictions governing the resale of the Property; and

(d) The Authority to which the Property is mortgaged has been designated by the Municipality to administer the procedures and restrictions governing such housing.

2. The Borrower also acknowledges and understands that the Property has been purchased at a restricted sales price that is less than the fair market value of the Property.

BORROWER'S PROMISES

In consideration for the value received in connection with the purchase of the Property at a restricted sales price, the Borrower agrees as follows:

1. The Borrower will comply with all of the terms of the Note and this Mortgage which includes:

(a) Within the restricted period starting with the date the Borrower obtained title to the Property, the Borrower shall not sell or transfer title to the Property for an amount that exceeds the maximum allowable resale price as established by the Authority. In the event of breach of this promise, Borrower hereby assigns all proceeds in excess of the maximum allowable resale price to the Authority, said assignment to be in addition to any and all rights and remedies the Authority has upon default.

(b) At the first non-exempt transfer of title of the Property after the ending date of the restricted period, the Borrower agrees to repay 95% of the incremental amount between the maximum allowable resale price and the fair market selling price which has accrued to the Property during the restricted period to the Authority.

2. The Borrower warrants title to the premises (N.J.S.A. 46:9-2). This means the Borrower owns the Property and will defend its ownership against all claims.

3. The Borrower shall pay all liens, taxes, assessments and other governmental charges made against the Property when due. The Borrower will not claim any credit against the principal and interest payable under the Note and this Mortgage for any taxes paid on the Property.

4. The Borrower shall keep the Property in good repair, neither damaging nor abandoning it. The Borrower will allow the Authority to inspect the Property upon reasonable notice.

5. The Borrower shall use the Property in compliance with all laws, ordinances and other requirements of any governmental authority.

CONTROLS ON AFFORDABILITY

The procedures and restrictions governing resale of the Property have been established pursuant to the Fair Housing Act and the regulations adopted under the authority of the Act (all collectively referred to as "Controls on Affordability"). Reference is made to the Controls on Affordability for the procedure in calculating the maximum allowable resale price, the method of repayment described in item 1(b) of the section entitled "Borrower's Promises", and the definition of a "restricted sale" for purposes of determining when the Affordability Controls are applicable, and the determination of the restricted period of time.

RIGHTS GIVEN TO LENDER

The Borrower, by mortgaging the Property to the Authority, gives the Authority those rights stated in this Mortgage, all rights the law gives to lenders, who hold mortgages, and also all rights the law gives to the Authority and/or Municipality under the Affordability Controls. The rights given to the Authority and the restrictions upon the Property are covenants running with the land. The rights, terms and restrictions in this Mortgage shall bind the Borrower and all subsequent purchasers and owners of the Property, and the heirs and assigns of all of them. Upon performance of the promises contained in the Note and Mortgage, the Authority will cancel this Mortgage at its expense.

DEFAULT

The Authority may declare the Borrower in default on the Note and this Mortgage if:

1. The Borrower fails to comply with the provisions of the Affordable Housing Agreement;

2. The Borrower fails to make any payment required by the Note and this Mortgage;

3. The Borrower fails to keep any other promise made in this Mortgage;

4. The ownership of the Property is changed for any reason without compliance with the terms of the Note and Mortgage;

5. The holder of any lien on the Property starts foreclosure proceedings; or

6. Bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership are started by or against any of the Borrowers.

AUTHORITY'S RIGHTS UPON DEFAULT

If the Authority declares that the Note and this Mortgage are in default, the Authority shall have, subject to the rights of the First Mortgage, all rights given by law or set forth in this Mortgage.

NOTICES

All notices must be in writing and personally delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the addresses given in this Mortgage. Address changes may be made upon notice to the other party.

NO WAIVER BY AUTHORITY

The Authority may exercise any right under this Mortgage or under any law, even if the Authority has delayed in exercising that right or has agreed in an earlier instance not to exercise that right. The Authority does not waive its right to declare the Borrower is in default by making payments or incurring expense on behalf of the Borrower.

EACH PERSON LIABLE

This Mortgage is legally binding upon each Borrower and all who succeed to their responsibilities (such as heirs and executors). The Authority may enforce any of the provisions of the Note and this Mortgage against any one or more of the Borrowers who sign this Mortgage.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

Article 3. Grantor's Covenant

The Grantor hereby covenants and affirms that Grantor has taken no action to encumber the Property.

Article 4. Affordable Housing Covenants

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the

"Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by CGP&H, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 18, 2002, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules, found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

Article 3. Grantor's Covenant

The Grantor hereby covenants and affirms that Grantor has taken no action to encumber the Property.

Article 4. Affordable Housing Covenants

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the

"Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control
Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by CGP&H, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

G. No improvements may be made to the Property that would affect its bedroom configuration, and in any event, no improvement made to the Property will be taken into consideration to increase the MRP, except for improvements approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent;

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30-year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 16, 2002, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

Article 5. Remedies for Breach of Affordable Housing Covenants

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

Article 6. Notice of Resale, Recapture Covenant and 95/5 Purchase Options

A. The owner of the Property is required to notify the Montgomery Township Administrative Agent and New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing by certified mail of any intent to sell the property 90 days prior to entering into an agreement for the first non-exempt sale of the Property after the conclusion of the Control Period, as set forth in Section 5:93-9.8(b)(2) of the Substantive Rules of the New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing as in effect at the time the Property was first restricted as part of the Affordable Housing Program.

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules, found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

Article 4. Affordable Housing Covenants

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the

"Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by Community Grants, Planning & Housing, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

G. No improvements may be made to the Property that would affect its bedroom configuration, and in any event, no improvement made to the Property will be taken into consideration to increase the MRP, except for improvements approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent;

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is November 5, 2002, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26:1 et seq.

Article 5. Remedies for Breach of Affordable Housing Covenants

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

Article 6. Notice of Resale, Recapture Covenant and 95/5 Purchase Options

A. The owner of the Property is required to notify the Montgomery Township Administrative Agent and New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing by certified mail of any intent to sell the property 90 days prior to entering into an agreement for the first non-exempt sale of the Property after the conclusion of the Control Period, as set forth in Section 5:93-9.8(b)(2) of the Substantive Rules of the New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing as in effect at the time the Property was first restricted as part of the Affordable Housing Program.

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules, found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage, as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

Contains Deed Restrictions

Prepared by: Laura Wetzel

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Pursuant to the transfer of ownership of an affordable housing unit for the price of $ 85,641.00, this AGREEMENT is entered into on this 3rd day of October, 2005, between Michael and Seleste McDaniel, owner of the properties designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "OWNER", and the Township of Montgomery, hereafter "AUTHORITY", or "MUNICIPALITY", both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the affordable housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of at least 30 years beginning on October 28, 2002 and ending at the first non-exempt transfer of title after October 28, 2032 unless extended by municipal resolution as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L. 1985, c. 222) hereinafter "Act", to provide their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit (units) described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or an attached Exhibit A of this Agreement has (have) been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing units (unit) remain(s) affordable to low and moderate eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

For purposes of the initial sales or rentals of any affordable housing unit, owner shall include the developer/owner of such affordable housing units. Owner shall not include any co-signer or co-borrower on any first purchase money mortgage unless such co-signer or co-borrower is also a named title holder of record of such affordable housing unit.

"Price Differential" shall mean the total amount of the restricted sales price that exceeds the maximum restricted resale price as calculated by the index after reasonable real estate broker fees have been deducted. The unrestricted sales price shall be no less than a comparable fair market price as determined by the Authority at the time a Notice of Intent to Sell has been received from the owner.

"Primary Residence" shall mean the unit wherein a certified household maintains continuing residence for no less than nine months of each calendar year.

"Purchaser" shall mean a certified household who has signed an agreement to purchase an affordable housing unit subject to a mortgage commitment and closing.

"Repayment" shall mean the owner's obligation to the municipality for payment of 95% of the price differential between the maximum allowable resale price and the fair market selling price which has accrued to the affordable unit during the restricted period of resale at the first non-exempt sale of the property after restrictions have ended as specified in the Affordable Housing Agreement.

"Repayment Mortgage" shall mean the second mortgage document signed by the owner that is given to the municipality as security for the payment due under the Repayment Note.

"Repayment Note" shall mean the second mortgage note signed by the owner that requires the repayment to the municipality of 95% of the price differential which has accrued to the low or moderate income unit during the period of resale controls at the first non-exempt sale of the property after restrictions have ended as specified in the Affordable Housing Agreement.

"Resale Price" shall mean the base price of a unit designated as owner-occupied affordable housing as adjusted by the index. The resale price may also be adjusted to accommodate an approved home improvement.

"Total Monthly Housing Costs" shall mean the total of the following monthly payments associated with the cost of an owner-occupied affordable housing unit including the mortgage payment (principle, interest, private mortgage insurance), applicable assessments by any homeowners, condominium, or cooperative associations, real estate taxes, and fire, theft and liability insurance.

III. TERM OF RESTRICTION

A. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall begin on the later of the date a Certificate of Occupancy is issued or the date on which closing and transfer of title takes place for initial ownership.

B. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of either of the following events:

1. At the first non-exempt sale after ten (10) years from the beginning date established pursuant to Paragraph A above for units located in municipalities receiving state aid pursuant to P.L. 1978, L.14 (N.J.S.A. 52:27D-178 et seq.) that exhibit one of the characteristics delineated in N.J.A.C. 5:92-5.3(b); or at the first non-exempt sale after thirty (30) years from the beginning date established pursuant to Paragraph A above for units located in all other municipalities; or

2. The date upon which the event set forth in Section IX FORECLOSURE herein shall occur.

C. The terms, restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement may be extended by municipal resolution as provided for in N.J.A.C. 5:92.1 et seq. Such municipal resolution shall provide for a period of extended restrictions and shall be effective upon filing with the Council and the Authority. The municipal resolution shall specify the extended time period by providing for a revised ending date. An amendment to the Affordable Housing Agreement shall be filed with the recording office of the county in which the affordable housing unit or units is/are located.

D. At the first non-exempt title transaction after the established ending date, the Authority shall execute a document in recordable form evidencing that the affordable housing unit has been released from the restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

IV. RESTRICTIONS

A. The owner of an owner-occupied affordable housing unit for sale shall not sell the unit at a resale price greater than an established base price plus the allowable percentage of increase as determined by the index applicable to the municipality in which the unit is located. However, in no event shall the approved resale price be established at a lower level than the last recorded purchase price.

B. The owner shall not sell the affordable housing unit to anyone other than a purchaser who has been certified utilizing the income verification procedures established by the Authority to determine qualified low and moderate income-eligible households.

C. An owner wishing to enter a transaction that will terminate controls as specified heretofore in Section III TERMS OF RESTRICTION shall be obligated to provide a Notice of Intent to Sell to the Authority and the Council. An option to buy the unit at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the Index shall be made available to the municipality, the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell. The option to buy shall be by certified mail and shall be effective on the date of mailing to the owner.

1. If the option to buy is not exercised within ninety (90) days pursuant to Paragraph C above, the owner may elect to sell the unit to a certified income-eligible household at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the index provided the unit continues to be restricted by an Affordable Housing Agreement and a Repayment Note for a period of up to thirty (30) years.

2. Alternately, the owner may also elect to sell to any purchaser at a fair market price. In this event, the owner shall be obligated to pay the municipality 95% of the price differential generated at the time of closing and transfer of title of the affordable housing unit after restrictions have ended as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

3. If the owner does not sell the unit within one (1) year of the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell, the option to buy shall be restored to the municipality and subsequently to the Department, the Agency or a non-profit approved by the Council. The owner shall then be required to submit a new Notice of Intent to Sell the affordable unit to the Authority.

D. The affordable housing unit shall be sold in accordance with all rules, regulations, and requirements duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), the intent of which is to ensure that the affordable housing unit remains affordable to and occupied by low and moderate income-eligible households throughout the duration of this Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the recording office of the county in which the affordable housing unit or units are located. The Agreement shall be filed no earlier than the recording of an applicable master deed and no later than the closing date of the initial sale.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one affordable housing unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each affordable housing unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or Exhibit A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the unit as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION of the Agreement.

C. A Repayment Mortgage and a Repayment Note shall be executed between the owner and the municipality wherein the unit(s) is (are) located at the time of closing and transfer of title to any purchaser of an affordable housing unit. The Repayment Mortgage shall provide for the repayment of 95% of the price differential at the first non-exempt transfer of title after the ending date of restrictions as specified in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION. The Repayment Mortgage shall be recorded with the records office of the county in which the unit is located.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

All Deeds of Conveyance and Contracts to Purchase from all owners to certified purchasers of affordable housing units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place.

"The owner's rights, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale and rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in the AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT which is filed concurrently with this deed in the Office of the County Clerk of Somerset County and is also on file with the Authority."

Any master deed that includes an affordable housing unit shall also reference the affordable unit and the Affordable Housing Agreement and any variation in services, fees, or other terms of the master deed that differentiates the affordable unit from all other units covered in the master deed.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each affordable housing unit affected hereby, and shall bind all purchasers and owners of each affordable housing unit, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein.

VIII. OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement, the owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. Affordable housing units shall at all times remain the primary residence of the owner. The owner shall not rent any affordable housing unit to any party whether or not that party qualifies as a low or moderate income household without prior written approval from the Authority.

B. All home improvements made to an affordable housing unit shall be at the owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be resold to a larger household size because of an increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of base price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The owner of an affordable housing unit shall keep the affordable housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of affordable housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments or levies, both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the same become due.

E. Owners of affordable housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the affordable housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer a certified household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an income eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed purchaser must complete all required household eligibility forms and submit gross annual income information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was originally restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable resale price. Other items of property may be sold to the purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the base price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The owner and the purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at resale.

I. The owner shall not permit any lien, other than the first purchase money mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an affordable housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the master deed of the condominium or by-laws of an association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said master deed or by-laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed exemption transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An exempt transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of the title transfer.

L. The owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver, if no certified household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the municipality shall have thirty (30) days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a certified household. The municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinate only to the first purchase money mortgage lien on the affordable housing property and in no way shall impair the first purchase money mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the first purchase money mortgage documents for the affordable housing unit.

Any affordable housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a first purchase money mortgagee by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or by a purchaser at a foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the first purchase money mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to foreclosure with regard to the first purchase money mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, owners and mortgagees of that particular affordable housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the affordable housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at the time of the foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgement of foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such affordable housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the affordable housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a foreclosure sale by the first purchase money mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such foreclosure sale. For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible resale price of the affordable housing unit as of the date of the foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the first money mortgage, including the costs of foreclosure plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement. The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor.

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the first purchase mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds. This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the owner of record at the time of the foreclosure sale surviving such sale. The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor. Neither the first purchase money mortgagee nor the purchaser at the foreclosure sale shall be responsible or liable to the Authority for any portion of this excess.

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted resale price of the affordable housing unit as of the date of the foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: first purchase money mortgage, prior liens, costs of foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted resale price.

If there are owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The first purchase money mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor.

Nothing shall preclude the municipality wherein the affordable housing unit is located from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at the approved maximum resale price, and holding, renting or conveying it to a certified household if such right is exercised within ninety (90) days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the first purchase money mortgagee are satisfied.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by the owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated affordable housing units remain affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households as defined herein.

It is the intention of all parties that the provisions of this instrument are severable so that if any provisions, conditions, covenants or restrictions thereof shall be invalid or void under any applicable federal, state or local law, the remainder shall be unaffected thereby.

XVIII. AGREEMENT

The owner and the Authority hereby agree that all affordable housing units described herein shall be marketed, sold, and occupied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Neither the owner nor the Authority shall amend or alter the provisions of this Agreement without first obtaining the approval of the other party except as described in Section III, Paragraph C, TERM OF RESTRICTION. The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied.

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P L 1985, c 222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act, and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years, and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter the "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION has been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act, and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing unit remains affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls, and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income-eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum

Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

X VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

Article 3. Grantor's Covenant

Article 4. Affordable Housing Covenants

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the "Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by Community Grants, Planning & Housing, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

G. No improvements may be made to the Property that would affect its bedroom configuration, and in any event, no improvement made to the Property will be taken into consideration to increase the MRP, except for improvements approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent;

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 30, 2002, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

Article 5. Remedies for Breach of Affordable Housing Covenants

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

Article 6. Notice of Resale, Recapture Covenant and 95/5 Purchase Options

A. The owner of the Property is required to notify the Hamilton Township Administrative Agent and New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing by certified mail of any intent to sell the property 90 days prior to entering into an agreement for the first non-exempt sale of the Property after the conclusion of the Control Period, as set forth in Section 5:93-9.8(b)(2) of the Substantive Rules of the New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing as in effect at the time the Property was first restricted as part of the Affordable Housing Program.

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules, found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the "Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by CGP&H LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 30, 2032, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

It is the intention of all parties that the provisions of this instrument are severable so that if any provisions, conditions, covenants or restrictions thereof shall be invalid or void under any applicable federal, state or local law, the remainder shall be unaffected thereby

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

I The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days

J If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N J A C 5 92-1 et seq), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N J A C 5 92-1 et seq), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction It does not affect the resale price All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein

M. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30-year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 28, 2002, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N J A C 5 92-1 et seq), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer

L The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N J A C 5 92-1 et seq), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction It does not affect the resale price All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein

M The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

MARK D IMBRIANI

SOMERVILLE NJ 08876

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by Community Grants, Planning & Housing, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

G. No improvements may be made to the Property that would affect its bedroom configuration, and in any event, no improvement made to the Property will be taken into consideration to increase the MRP, except for improvements approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent;

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is October 28, 2032, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

Article 5. Remedies for Breach of Affordable Housing Covenants

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

Article 6. Notice of Resale, Recapture Covenant and 95/5 Purchase Options

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules, found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

VII COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each Affordable Housing unit affected hereby, and shall bind all Purchasers and Owners of each Affordable Housing unit, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein

VIII OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Owner acknowledges the following responsibilities

A Affordable Housing unit shall at all times remain the Primary Residence of the Owner The Owner shall not rent any Affordable Housing unit to any party whether or not that party qualifies as a Low or Moderate income household without prior written approval from the Authority

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Housing unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be sold to a larger household size because of increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of Base Price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing unit shall keep the Affordable Housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the become due.

E. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income Information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale.

I. The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with, and subject to, any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX. FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage, as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit. Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price.

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor.

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied.

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L 1985, c 222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act, and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter the "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION has been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing unit remains affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls, and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income-eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time

d. The Authority to which the Property is mortgaged has been designated by the Municipality to administer the procedures and restrictions governing such housing.

B. All home improvements made to an Affordable Housing unit shall be at the Owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be sold to a larger household size because of increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of Base Price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing unit shall keep the Affordable Housing unit in good repair

D. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the become due

Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority

F An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority

G If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income Information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale

I The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days

J If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A C. 5 92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A C 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein

M The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale. For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of: (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT

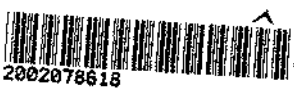
Nancy Justus, Paralegal

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Pursuant to the transfer of ownership of an affordable housing unit for the price of SEVENTY SEVEN THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED EIGHTY ONE and 00/100 DOLLARS, this AGREEMENT is entered into on this 21st day of August, 2002 between HUA JIA ZENG and XIBO ZENG, owner(s) of the property designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "OWNER", and The HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONTGOMERY, which is an instrumentality of the Township of Montgomery hereafter the "AUTHORITY", both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the Affordable Housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of at least thirty (30) years beginning on August 21, 2002 and ending at the first non-exempt transfer of title after August 21, 2032 unless extended by municipal resolution as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P L.1985, c 222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and



WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter the "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION has been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing unit remains affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls, and by entering into this Agreement, the Owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income-eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The Owner of an Affordable Housing unit shall keep the Affordable Housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the become due.

E. Owners of Affordable Housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the Affordable Housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale.

I. The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L. The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with, and subject to, any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX. FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage, as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit. Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

XII INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

Sale and use of the Property is governed by regulations known as the Uniform Housing Affordability Controls, which are found in New Jersey Administrative Code at Title 5, chapter 80, subchapter 26 (N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1, et seq, the

"Regulations"). Consistent with the Regulations, the following covenants (the "Covenants") shall run with the land for the period of time commencing upon the earlier of (a) the date hereof or (b) the prior commencement of the "Control Period", as that term is defined in the Regulations, and terminating upon the expiration of the Control Period as provided in the Regulations.

A. The Property may be conveyed only to a household who has been approved in advance and in writing by Community Grants, Planning & Housing, LLC, an administrative agent appointed under the Regulations (hereinafter, collectively, the "Administrative Agent").

B. No sale of the Property shall be lawful, unless approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent, and no sale shall be for a consideration greater than maximum permitted price ("Maximum Resale Price", or "MRP") as determined by the Administrative Agent.

C. No refinancing, equity loan, secured letter of credit, or any other mortgage obligation or other debt (collectively, "Debt") secured by the Property, may be incurred except as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent. At no time shall the Administrative Agent approve any such Debt, if incurring the Debt would make the total of all such Debt exceed Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the applicable MRP.

D. The owner of the Property shall at all times maintain the Property as his or her principal place of residence.

E. Except as set forth in F, below, at no time shall the owner of the Property lease or rent the Property to any person or persons, except on a short-term hardship basis as approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent.

F. If the Property is a two-family home, the owner shall lease the rental unit only to income-certified low-income households approved in writing by the Administrative Agent, shall charge rent no greater than the maximum permitted rent as determined by the Administrative Agent, and shall submit for written approval of the Administrative Agent copies of all proposed leases prior to having them signed by any proposed tenant.

G. No improvements may be made to the Property that would affect its bedroom configuration, and in any event, no improvement made to the Property will be taken into consideration to increase the MRP, except for improvements approved in advance and in writing by the Administrative Agent;

H. The affordable housing covenants, declarations and restrictions implemented by this Declaration and by incorporation, N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.1 et seq., shall remain in effect despite the entry and enforcement of any judgment of foreclosure with respect to the Affordable Unit so long as the Affordable Unit remains subject to the affordability controls being implemented by this Declaration;

I. The Affordable Units are subject to a 30 year affordability control period that commenced on the date of first conveyance of title, which is September 27, 2032, of this Affordable Unit governed by this Declaration to a certified affordable purchaser who has executed the documents required by N.J.S.A. 5:80-26.1 et seq.

Article 5. Remedies for Breach of Affordable Housing Covenants

A breach of the Covenants will cause irreparable harm to the Administrative Agent and to the public, in light of the public policies set forth in the New Jersey Fair Housing Act, the Uniform Housing Affordability Control rules found at N.J.A.C. 5:80-26, and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate-income housing. Accordingly, and as set forth in N.J.A.C. 5:80-26.10A(b):

A. In the event of a threatened breach of any of the Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

B. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any Covenants by the Grantee, or any successor in interest or other owner of the Property, the Administrative Agent shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to forfeiture, foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under any mortgage, recouping of any funds from a sale in violation of the Covenants, diverting of rent proceeds from illegal rentals, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of said Covenants, entry on the premises, those provided under Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26 of the New Jersey Administrative Code and specific performance.

Article 6. Notice of Resale, Recapture Covenant and 95/5 Purchase Options

A. The owner of the Property is required to notify the Montgomery Township Administrative Agent and New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing by certified mail of any intent to sell the property 90 days prior to entering into an agreement for the first non-exempt sale of the Property after the conclusion of the Control Period, as set forth in Section 5:93-9.8(b)(2) of the Substantive Rules of the New Jersey Council On Affordable Housing as in effect at the time the Property was first restricted as part of the Affordable Housing Program.

B. Upon the first such non-exempt sale of the Property, Ninety-Five Percent (95%) of the difference between (i) the actual sale price and (ii) the regulated maximum sales price that would be applicable were the Control Period still in effect, shall be paid at closing to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, acting as receiving agent for the local municipality.

C. Such non-exempt sale is subject to the options provided for in Sections 5:80-26.20 (Option to buy 95/5 units), 5:80-26.21 (Municipal option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.22 (State option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.23 (Non-profit option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.24 (Seller option on 95/5 units), 5:80-26.25 (Municipal rejection of repayment option on 95/5 units) and 5:80-26.26 (Continued application of options to create, rehabilitate or maintain 95/5 units) of the Uniform Housing Affordability Control Rules found in Title 5, Chapter 80, Subchapter 26, of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

F An Owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority

G If the Authority does not refer an eligible household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the Owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed Purchaser must complete all required Household Eligibility forms and submit Gross Annual Income Information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction

H At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was initially restricted (e.g refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher. wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable Resale Price. Other items of property may be sold to the Purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the Base Price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The Owner and the Purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at Resale

I The Owner shall not permit any lien, other than the First Purchase Money Mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days

J. If an Affordable Housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the Owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the Master Deed of the Condominium or By-laws of an Association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said Master Deed or By-Laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N J A.C. 5 :92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The Owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed Exempt Transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer

L The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household The Municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an Owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household If the waiver is granted, the Owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein

M The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit. Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price.

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated Affordable Housing units remain affordable to Low and Moderate Income-Eligible households as defined herein

AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT
Contains Deed Restrictions

A DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Pursuant to the transfer of ownership of an affordable housing unit for the price of $ 83,989.00 , this AGREEMENT is entered into on this 24th day of October , 2005, between Kalpana Desai, owner of the properties designated in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION, hereafter "OWNER", and the Township of Montgomery, hereafter "AUTHORITY", or "MUNICIPALITY", both parties having agreed that the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein shall be imposed on the affordable housing unit described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION for a period of at least 30 years beginning on October 28, 2002 and ending at the first non-exempt transfer of title after October 28, 2032 unless extended by municipal resolution as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L. 1985, c. 222) hereinafter "Act", to provide their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years; and

WHEREAS, the Act establishes the Council on Affordable Housing (hereinafter "Council") to assist municipalities in determining a realistic opportunity for the planning and development of such affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the housing unit (units) described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION hereafter and/or an attached Exhibit A of this Agreement has (have) been designated as low and moderate income housing as defined by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that the described housing units (unit) remain(s) affordable to low and moderate eligible households for that period of time described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the intent of this Agreement to ensure that the affordability controls are contained directly in the property deed for the premises and incorporated into and recorded with the property deed so as to bind the owner of the described premises and notify all future purchasers of the housing unit that the housing unit is encumbered with affordability controls; and by entering into this Agreement, the owner of the described premises agrees to restrict the sale of the housing unit to low and moderate income eligible households at a maximum resale price determined by the Authority for the specified period of time.

I. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

The option to buy shall be by certified mail and shall be effective on the date of mailing to the owner.

1. If the option to buy is not exercised within ninety (90) days pursuant to Paragraph C above, the owner may elect to sell the unit to a certified income-eligible household at the maximum restricted sales price as calculated by the index provided the unit continues to be restricted by an Affordable Housing Agreement and a Repayment Note for a period of up to thirty (30) years.

2. Alternately, the owner may also elect to sell to any purchaser at a fair market price. In this event, the owner shall be obligated to pay the municipality 95% of the price differential generated at the time of closing and transfer of title of the affordable housing unit after restrictions have ended as specified heretofore in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION.

3. If the owner does not sell the unit within one (1) year of the date of delivery of the Notice of Intent to Sell, the option to buy shall be restored to the municipality and subsequently to the Department, the Agency or a non-profit approved by the Council. The owner shall then be required to submit a new Notice of Intent to Sell the affordable unit to the Authority.

D. The affordable housing unit shall be sold in accordance with all rules, regulations, and requirements duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), the intent of which is to ensure that the affordable housing unit remains affordable to and occupied by low and moderate income-eligible households throughout the duration of this Agreement.

V. REQUIREMENTS

A. This Agreement shall be recorded with the recording office of the county in which the affordable housing unit or units are located. The Agreement shall be filed no earlier than the recording of an applicable master deed and no later than the closing date of the initial sale.

B. When a single Agreement is used to govern more than one affordable housing unit, the Agreement shall contain a description of each affordable housing unit governed by the Agreement as described in Section II PROPERTY DESCRIPTION and/or Exhibit A of the Agreement and an ending date to be imposed on the unit as described in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION of the Agreement.

C. A Repayment Mortgage and a Repayment Note shall be executed between the owner and the municipality wherein the unit(s) is (are) located at the time of closing and transfer of title to any purchaser of an affordable housing unit. The Repayment Mortgage shall provide for the repayment of 95% of the price differential at the first non-exempt transfer of title after the ending date of restrictions as specified in Section III TERM OF RESTRICTION. The Repayment Mortgage shall be recorded with the records office of the county in which the unit is located.

VI. DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE AND LEASE PROVISIONS

All Deeds of Conveyance and Contracts to Purchase from all owners to certified purchasers of affordable housing units shall include the following clause in a conspicuous place.

"The owner's rights, title and interest in this unit and the use, sale, resale and rental of this property are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions as set forth in the AFFORDABLE HOUSING AGREEMENT which is filed concurrently with this deed in the Office of the County Clerk of Somerset County and is also on file with the Authority."

Any master deed that includes an affordable housing unit shall also reference the affordable unit and the Affordable Housing Agreement and any variation in services, fees, or other terms of the master deed that differentiates the affordable unit from all other units covered in the master deed.

VII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH LAND

The provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement shall constitute covenants running with the land with respect to each affordable housing unit affected hereby, and shall bind all purchasers and owners of each affordable housing unit, their heirs, assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for the duration of this Agreement as set forth herein.

VIII. OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to fully complying with the terms and provisions of this Affordable Housing Agreement, the owner acknowledges the following responsibilities:

A. Affordable housing units shall at all times remain the primary residence of the owner. The owner shall not rent any affordable housing unit to any party whether or not that party qualifies as a low or moderate income household without prior written approval from the Authority.

B. All home improvements made to an affordable housing unit shall be at the owner's expense except that expenditures for any alteration that allows a unit to be resold to a larger household size because of an increased capacity for occupancy shall be considered for a recalculation of base price. Owners must obtain prior approval for such alteration from the Authority to qualify for this recalculation.

C. The owner of an affordable housing unit shall keep the affordable housing unit in good repair.

D. Owners of affordable housing units shall pay all taxes, charges, assessments or levies, both public and private, assessed against such unit, or any part thereof, as and when the same become due.

E. Owners of affordable housing units shall notify the Authority in writing no less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed sale of an intent to sell the property. Owners shall not execute any purchase agreement, convey title or otherwise deliver possession of the affordable housing unit without the prior written approval of the Authority.

F. An owner shall request referrals of eligible households from pre-established referral lists maintained by the Authority.

G. If the Authority does not refer a certified household within sixty (60) days of the Notice of Intent to Sell the unit or no Agreement to Purchase the unit has been executed, the owner may propose a Contract to Purchase the unit to an income eligible household not referred through the Authority. The proposed purchaser must complete all required household eligibility forms and submit gross annual income information for verification to the Authority for written certification as an eligible sales transaction.

H. At resale, all items of property which are permanently affixed to the unit and/or were included when the unit was originally restricted (e.g. refrigerator, range, washer, dryer, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting) shall be included in the maximum allowable resale price. Other items of property may be sold to the purchaser at a reasonable price that has been approved by the Authority at the time of signing the Agreement to Purchase. The purchase of central air conditioning installed subsequent to the initial sale of the unit and not included in the base price may be made a condition of the unit resale provided the price has been approved by the Authority. Unless otherwise permitted by the Council, the purchase of any property other than central air conditioning shall not be made a condition of the unit resale. The owner and the purchaser must personally certify at the time of closing that no unapproved transfer of funds for the purpose of selling and receiving property has taken place at resale.

I. The owner shall not permit any lien, other than the first purchase money mortgage, second mortgages approved by the Authority and liens of the Authority to attach and remain on the property for more than sixty (60) days.

J. If an affordable housing unit is part of a condominium, homeowner's or cooperative association, the owner, in addition to paying any assessments required by the master deed of the condominium or by-laws of an association, shall further fully comply with all of the terms, covenants or conditions of said master deed or by-laws, as well as fully comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions of this Affordable Housing Agreement.

K. The owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Certificate of Exemption. The owner shall notify the Authority in writing of any proposed exemption transaction and supply the necessary documentation to qualify for a Certificate of Exemption. An exempt transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of the title transfer.

L. The owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:93), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver, if no certified household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the municipality shall have thirty (30) days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a certified household. The municipality may transfer this option to the Department, the Agency, or a qualified non-profit organization as determined by the Council. For approval of a Hardship Waiver, an owner must document efforts to sell the unit to an income eligible household. If the waiver is granted, the owner may offer a low income unit to a moderate income household or a moderate income unit to a household whose income exceeds 80% of the applicable median income guide. The Hardship Waiver shall be filed with the deed at the time of closing and is only valid for the designated resale transaction. It does not affect the resale price. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M. The owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinate only to the first purchase money mortgage lien on the affordable housing property and in no way shall impair the first purchase money mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the first purchase money mortgage documents for the affordable housing unit.

Any affordable housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a first purchase money mortgagee by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or by a purchaser at a foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the first purchase money mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to foreclosure with regard to the first purchase money mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, owners and mortgagees of that particular affordable housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the affordable housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at the time of the foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgement of foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such affordable housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the affordable housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a foreclosure sale by the first purchase money mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such foreclosure sale. For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible resale price of the affordable housing unit as of the date of the foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the first money mortgage, including the costs of foreclosure plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement. The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor.

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the first purchase mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds. This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the owner of record at the time of the foreclosure sale surviving such sale. The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor. Neither the first purchase money mortgagee nor the purchaser at the foreclosure sale shall be responsible or liable to the Authority for any portion of this excess.

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted resale price of the affordable housing unit as of the date of the foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums: first purchase money mortgage, prior liens, costs of foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted resale price.

If there are owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The first purchase money mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such. At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority, to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor.

Nothing shall preclude the municipality wherein the affordable housing unit is located from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at the approved maximum resale price, and holding, renting or conveying it to a certified household if such right is exercised within ninety (90) days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the first purchase money mortgagee are satisfied.

X. VIOLATION, DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing. Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by the owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance.

XI. RIGHT TO ASSIGN

XII. INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as to avoid financial speculation or circumvention of the purposes of the Fair Housing Act for the duration of this Agreement and to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that the purchase price, mortgage payments and rents of designated affordable housing units remain affordable to low and moderate income-eligible households as defined herein.

XV. SEVERABILITY

It is the intention of all parties that the provisions of this instrument are severable so that if any provisions, conditions, covenants or restrictions thereof shall be invalid or void under any applicable federal, state or local law, the remainder shall be unaffected thereby.

In the event that any provision, condition, covenant or restriction hereof, is at the time of recording of this instrument, void, voidable or unenforceable as being contrary to any applicable federal, state or local law, both parties, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming by, through or under them covenant and agree that any future amendments or supplements to the said laws having the effect of removing said invalidity, voidability or unenforceability, shall be deemed to apply retrospectively to this instrument thereby operating to validate the provisions of this instrument which otherwise might be invalid and it is covenanted and agreed that any such amendments and supplements to the said laws shall have the effect herein described as fully as if they had been in effect at the time of the execution of this instrument.

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement. Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

The Authority may assign from time to time its rights, and delegate its obligations hereunder without the consent of the Owner Upon such assignment, the Authority, its successors or assigns shall provide written notice to the Owner

IX FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale)

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located. The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

Nothing shall preclude the Township of Montgomery from acquiring an affordable property prior to foreclosure sale at a negotiated price not to exceed the maximum Resale Price and holding, renting or conveying it to a Certified Household if such right is exercised within 90 days after the property is listed for sale and all outstanding obligations to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee are satisfied

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P L 1985, c 222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act, and

An Exempt Transaction does not terminate the resale restrictions or existing liens and is not considered a certified sales transaction in calculating subsequent resale prices. A Certificate of Exemption shall be filed with the deed at the time of title transfer.

L The Owner shall have responsibility for fulfilling all requirements in accordance with and subject to any rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Council (N.J.A.C. 5:92-1 et seq.), for determining that a resale transaction is qualified for a Hardship Waiver. The Owner may submit a written request for a Hardship Waiver if no Certified Household has executed an agreement to purchase within ninety (90) days of notification of an approved resale price and referral of potential purchasers. Prior to issuing a Hardship Waiver, the Municipality shall have 30 days in which to sign an agreement to purchase the unit at the approved resale price and subsequently rent or convey it to a Certified Household. All future resales are subject to all restrictions stated herein.

M The Owner shall be obligated to pay a reasonable service fee to the Authority at the time of closing and transfer of title in the amount specified by the Authority at the time a restricted resale price has been determined after receipt of a Notice of Intent to Sell. Such fee shall not be included in the calculation of the maximum resale price.

IX. FORECLOSURE

The terms and restrictions of this Agreement shall be subordinated only to the First Purchase Money Mortgage lien on the Affordable Housing property and in no way shall impair the First Purchase Money Mortgagee's ability to exercise the contract remedies available to it in the event of any default of such mortgage as such remedies are set forth in the First Purchase Money Mortgage documents for the Affordable Housing unit. Any Affordable Housing owner-occupied property that is acquired by a First Purchase Money Mortgagee by Deed in lieu of Foreclosure, or by a Purchaser at a Foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of the First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall be permanently released from the restrictions and covenants of this Affordable Housing Agreement. All resale restrictions shall cease to be effective as of the date of transfer of title pursuant to Foreclosure with regard to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee, a lender in the secondary mortgage market, including but not limited to the FNMA, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, GNMA, or an entity acting on their behalf and all subsequent purchasers, Owners and mortgagees of that particular Affordable Housing unit (except for the defaulting mortgagor, who shall be forever subject to the resale restrictions of this Agreement with respect to the Affordable Housing unit owned by such defaulting mortgagor at time of the Foreclosure sale).

Upon a judgment of Foreclosure, the Authority shall execute a document to be recorded in the county recording office as evidence that such Affordable Housing unit has been forever released from the restrictions of this Agreement Execution of foreclosure sales by any other class of creditor or mortgagee shall not result in a release of the Affordable Housing unit from the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.

In the event of a Foreclosure sale by the First Purchase Mortgagee, the defaulting mortgagor shall be personally obligated to pay to the Authority any excess funds generated from such Foreclosure sale For purposes of this Agreement, excess funds shall be the total amount paid to the sheriff by reason of the Foreclosure sale in excess of the greater of (1) the maximum permissible Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale pursuant to the rules and guidelines of the Authority, and (2) the amount required to pay and satisfy the First Money Mortgage, including the costs of Foreclosure, plus any second mortgages approved by the Authority in accordance with this Agreement The amount of excess funds shall also include all payments to any junior creditors out of the Foreclosure sale proceeds even if such were to the exclusion of the defaulting mortgagor

The Authority is hereby given a first priority lien, second only to the First Purchase Money Mortgagee and any taxes or public assessments by a duly authorized governmental body, equal to the full amount of such excess funds This obligation of the defaulting mortgagor to pay the full amount of excess funds to the Authority shall be deemed to be a personal obligation of the Owner of record at time of the Foreclosure sale surviving such sale The Authority shall be empowered to enforce the obligation of the defaulting mortgagor in any appropriate court of law or equity as though same were a personal contractual obligation of the defaulting mortgagor Neither the First Purchase Money Mortgagee nor the purchaser at the Foreclosure sale, shall be responsible, or liable to, the Authority for any portion of this excess

The defaulting mortgagor's equity shall be determined to be the difference between the maximum permitted Resale Price of the Affordable Housing unit as of the date of the Foreclosure sale as calculated in accordance with this Agreement and the total of the following sums First Purchase Money Mortgage, prior liens, costs of Foreclosure, assessments, property taxes, and other liens which may have been attached against the unit prior to Foreclosure, provided such total is less than the maximum permitted Resale Price

If there are Owner's equity sums to which the defaulting mortgagor is properly entitled, such sums shall be turned over to the defaulting mortgagor or placed in an escrow account for the defaulting mortgagor if the defaulting mortgagor cannot be located The First Purchase Money Mortgagee shall hold such funds in escrow for a period of two years or until such earlier time as the defaulting mortgagor shall make a claim for such At the end of two years, if unclaimed, such funds, including any accrued interest, shall become the property of the Authority to the exclusion of any other creditors who may have claims against the defaulting mortgagor

In the event of a threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including the right to seek injunctive relief or specific performance, it being recognized by both parties to this Agreement that a breach will cause irreparable harm to the Authority, in light of the public policies set forth in the Fair Housing Act and the obligation for the provision of low and moderate income housing Upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement by an Owner, the Authority shall have all remedies provided at law or equity, including but not limited to foreclosure, acceleration of all sums due under the mortgage, recoupment of any funds from a sale in violation of the Agreement, injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Agreement, entry on the premises, and specific performance

XI RIGHT TO ASSIGN

WHEREAS, municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required by the Fair Housing Act (P.L.1985, c.222) hereinafter the "Act", to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households with low or moderate incomes in accordance with provisions of the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires that municipalities ensure that such designated housing remains affordable to low and moderate income households for a minimum period of at least 6 years, and
